Please specify:

Georgia became a contracting state to the 1996 Hague Convention on Jurisdiction, Applicable Law, Recognition, Enforcement and Co-operation in Respect of Parental Responsibility and Measures for the Protection of Children (hereinafter “the Hague Convention”) in 2014. The same year legislative amendments were introduced to the Civil Procedure Code of Georgia. In accordance with the amendments, the Ministry of Justice of Georgia was designated as a Central Authority under the 1996 Hague Convention. Besides, Article 351(20) of the Civil Procedure Code specified the obligation of the Central Authority of Georgia to cooperate with the other central Authorities in accordance with the provisions of The Hague Convention.

On November 5, 2020, the Government of Georgia enacted an ordinance №663 which prescribes detailed rules on the rights and responsibilities of all the relevant state authorities that are involved in the referral and enforcement of the cases originated from the 1980 Hague International Child Abduction Convention and the 1996 Hague Convention. The main aim of the document is to effectively implement the principles and provisions of the 1980 and 1996 Hague Conventions and efficiently enforce the court judgments. The document prescribes the precise procedures for each relevant state agencies, which are in charge of examination, referral and enforcement of the above mentioned cases.

In order to effectively implement The Hague Conventions of 1980 and 1996 and the ordinance №663 of the Government of Georgia, in December, 2020 and January, 2021, representatives of state authorities involved in the referral and enforcement process were trained by the Central Authority of Georgia (57 participants in total).

² The term “State” in this Questionnaire includes a territorial unit, where relevant.

2. Please provide the three most significant decisions concerning the interpretation and application of the 1996 Convention recently rendered by the relevant authorities³ in your State.

Please explain:

In this regard, an emphasis shall be given to the Article 351 (10) of Civil Procedure Code of Georgia under which the applicant is authorized to file a claim to the court, before the court delivers a final judgment on Child Abduction case, to issue:

- a) An order restricting removal of the child;
- b) An order placing the child with the relevant person or institution;
- c) An order to locate the child by means of appropriate state authorities;
- d) Any other order that the applicant may deem appropriate according to the provisions of the Hague Convention.

Furthermore, under Article 9 (c) of “the referral and enforcement procedures for the return of a wrongfully removed or retained child or exercise of the right of access to the child” and Article 17 (6(b) of the law of Georgia “on Police” the Police, upon the request of the Central authority or a court order, is authorized to ensure the prevention of the crossing of the state border of Georgia by a child wrongfully removed/retained in the period of commencement of the proceedings by the Central authority until the execution of the court decision on International Child Abduction.

Moreover, it is crucial to highlight that until the enforcement of the legally effective court decision on the return of a child wrongfully removed to Georgia/wrongfully retained in Georgia, or on the return of a child wrongfully removed from the territory of Georgia/wrongfully retained in another contracting state of Hague Convention, a person under 16 years of age may be refused a passport/travel passport/travel document/neutral travel document to be issued to him/her, on the basis of a motion of a Central Authority unless otherwise provided for by the legislation of Georgia or the court decision.

Additionally, until the enforcement of the legally effective court decision on the return of a person under 16 years of age wrongfully removed to Georgia/retained in Georgia, the validity of a passport/travel passport/travel document/neutral travel document issued to such a person may be suspended, and the measure of suspension may be cancelled on the basis of a motion of the Central Authority, unless otherwise provided for by the legislation of Georgia or the court decision.
