Recent developments in your State²

1. Since the 2017 SC, have there been any significant developments in your State regarding the legislation or procedural rules applicable in cases of international child abduction? Where possible, please state the reason for the development and the results achieved in practice.

2. Following the Covid-19 pandemic,³ have there been any improvements that have remained in your State in the following areas, in particular in relation to the use of information technology, as a result of newly adopted procedures or practices applicable to child abduction cases? In each case, please describe the tools, guidelines or protocols put in place.

- a) Methods for accepting and processing return and access applications and their accompanying documentation;

The PCA accepts applications and documents sent via email. However, any documentation sent electronically is not accepted by the court/administrative authority. This is because the application must be signed personally by the applicant or his attorney. The application must be submitted in original.

- b) Participation of the parties and the child (e.g., appearance in court proceedings, mediation);
In general, it is at the discretion of the court to decide in this regard.

² This Part of the Questionnaire is intended to deal primarily with the developments in law and practice relating to international child abduction which have occurred in your State since the Seventh Meeting of the Special Commission (SC) to review the operation of the 1980 Abduction Convention and the 1996 Child Protection Convention (held from 10 to 17 October 2017) (“2017 SC”).

³ This question aims to gather information about good practices that were developed in those exceptional circumstances and that will continue to be applied regardless of the pandemic.

- c) Promoting mediation and other forms of amicable resolution;
The Polish Central Authority (hereinafter as the PCA) promotes mediation as a means of amicable resolution of the litigation.
- d) Making arrangements for organising or securing the effective exercise of rights of access, including while pending return proceedings;
The PCA may refer the applicant's request for organising contact with the child during the trial to the court. However, it does not take any other action or decision in this regard.
- e) Obtaining evidence by electronic means;
The PCA accepts and receives evidence or any documents electronically. However, original documents must be sent to the court.
- f) Ensuring the safe return of the child;
In the vast majority of cases, legal proceedings are initiated, although the alleged abduction party may agree to a voluntary return at any stage of the legal proceedings. The PCA takes steps to make both parties aware of the possibility of voluntary return by including information about voluntary return in the referral letter to the alleged abduction party. In addition, a leaflet containing information about mediation is attached to the referral letter.
- g) Cooperation between Central Authorities and other authorities;
The PCA has no formal role but provides any kind of assistance required during the proceedings (e.g. notification in accordance with Art. 16 if required, information of the Central Authority of the requesting State and procurement of information from there, if necessary).The PCA prefers to contact with other Central Authorities and other competent authorities via email.
- h) Providing information and guidance for parties involved in child abduction cases;
The PCA will provide a copy of the application form and may be able to deal with ad hoc queries in relation to completing the form. The Polish Central Authority is not in a position to provide legal advice. The application form can also be downloaded from www.gov.pl/web/stopchildabductions/forms-to-download
- i) Other, please specify.

⁴ The term “relevant authorities” is used in this Questionnaire to refer to the judicial or administrative authorities with decision-making responsibility under the 1980 Convention. Whilst in the majority of Contracting Parties such “authorities” will be courts (i.e., judicial), in some States Parties administrative authorities remain responsible for decision-making in Convention cases.

The Act of 26 January 2018 on the performance of certain activities of the central authority in family matters in the field of legal transactions under European Union law and international agreements introduced the specialisation of judges to rule on cases under the 1980 Hague Convention. Currently, 11 regional courts have been designated to rule on such cases and only one court of appeal has been designated to hear appeals against first instance decisions. In addition, each participant must be represented by a professional attorney.
