

The attention of tenderers is drawn to the fact that the HCCH has amongst its membership several States within which different systems of law apply (for instance federal or devolved States). It should therefore be possible for the same State to fill in several e-Country Profiles for the same Convention. For practical examples, please refer to the current Country Profiles for the 2007 Child Support Convention.