The Central Authority of the Republic of Armenia is willing to provide statistics through the web-based INCASTAT, whereas in 2016 (the first attempt), after downloading the statistical data, it turned out that it has not been downloaded. We would very much appreciate if we could receive consultation on how to use the program.

- No
 Yes, please specify:
Please insert text here

3.12 If your Central Authority is experiencing delays in handling cases please specify the main reasons for these delays:

We would like to note that because of the absence of the Legislation regulating this field, the terms of cooperation between concerned authorities are not clarified. In general, delays may be due to the implementation of works of guardianship and custody bodies, the Police. In any case, the competent authorities try to take measures as quickly as possible.

4. Court proceedings&promptness

4.1 Has your State limited the number of judicial or administrative authorities who can hear return applications under the 1980 Convention (i.e., concentration of jurisdiction)?⁸

acceptance of the child. In case if the decision on the return of the child is appealed the court, in its discretion or through the mediation of the participants of the proceedings, as claim ensuring means, may prohibit the border crossing of the child for the purpose of elimination of the removal of the child to another country.

4.6 Do your courts make use of direct judicial communications to ensure prompt proceedings?

Yes

No, please explain:

The court doesn't make decision on the return of the child. It discusses the appeal made against the decision of the Central Authority.

4.7 If your State has not designated a sitting judge to the International Hague Network of Judges does your State intend to do so in the near future?

Yes

No, please explain:

When working on the draft law on the child abduction, this question would also be discussed.

What was the specific purpose of the communication? What was the outcome?

The judges don't communicate with the judges of other States because under the administrative proceedings the court only discusses the appeal against the decision of the Central Authority on the return of the child.

5. Ensuring the safe return of children⁹

*Methods for ensuring the safe return of children*¹⁰

5.1 What measures has your Central Authority taken to ensure that the recommendations of the 2006 and 2011 / 2012 Special Commission meetings¹¹ regarding the safe return of children are implemented?

When working on the draft law on the child abduction these recommendations will also be taken into consideration.

5.2 In particular, in a case where the safety of a child is in issue and where a return order has been made in your State, how does your Central Authority ensure that the appropriate child protection bodies in the requesting State are alerted so that they may act to protect the welfare of a child upon return (until the appropriate court in the requesting State has been effectively seised)?

The Central Authority informs about the departure of the child to the Central Authority of the requesting State asking to confirm the arrival and safe transfer of the child to the person having jurisdiction over him/her.

5.3 Where there are concerns in the requested State regarding possible risks for a child following a return, what conditions or requirements can the relevant authority in your State put in place to minimise or eliminate those concerns?

When the child returns to the Republic of Armenia, for the purpose of the safe return the competent Police officer meets the child and places him/her with his/her legal representative. If the legal representative of the child is absent at a time when the child is being returned, the child is being placed in a relevant organization.

⁹ See Art. 7(2) h) of the 1980 Convention.

¹⁰ Where relevant, please make reference to the use of undertakings, mirror orders and safe harbour orders and other such measures in your State.

5.4 If your State is not Party to the 1996 Convention, is consideration being given to the possible advantages of the 1996 Convention in providing a jurisdictional basis for urgent protective measures associated with return orders (Arts 7 and 11), in providing for their recognition by operation of law (Art. 23), and in communicating information relevant to the protection of the child (Art. 34)?

- No

N/A

5.8 If your State is not Party to the 1996 Convention, is consideration being given to the possible advantages of the 1996 Convention in providing a jurisdictional basis for requesting a report on the situation of the child upon return to the State of habitual residence (Art. 32-(a))?

 Yes, please explain:
Please insert text here
