PART I – FOR CONTRACTING PARTIES

1. Recent developments in your State

1. Have there been any significant developments in your State regarding the legislation or procedural rules applicable in cases of international child protection? Where possible, please state the reason for the development and the results achieved in practice.

- No
 Yes

Please specify:

In comparison to the previous Criminal Code (adopted on April 18, 2003), the new Criminal Code (adopted on May 5, 2021) stipulates that, in addition to the general purposes of punishment, the punishment imposed on a juvenile who has committed a crime aims to ensure his/her physical well-being, mental, spiritual, moral and social normal development, to educate him/her and protect him/her from the negative influence of another person. This provision is essentially a regulation aimed at ensuring the "best interests of the child", which derives directly from both the Convention on the Rights of the Child and the Beijing Rules.

The new criminal code sets very strict thresholds for deprivation of liberty, based on the requirements of international legal acts for the protection of children's rights. In particular, the new criminal code stipulates that short-term imprisonment is assigned to a minor only when a milder punishment cannot contribute to the fulfillment of the purposes of the punishment.

Short-term imprisonment is not imposed on a minor for a minor crime, as well as in the case of a first-time offense, which is a crime of medium severity. In other words, if a child commits several minor crimes, short-term imprisonment cannot be imposed. The same requirement applies if the child has committed a crime for the first time and committed a crime of medium gravity. However, if the child previously committed a serious crime, then a medium crime, this ban will not apply.

The new Criminal Code stipulates that imprisonment for a minor is an exclusive means of punishment, which is appointed only when no other means can ensure the fulfillment of the goals of the punishment. For a minor crime, as well as for a first-time offense, which is a crime of moderate severity and is not accompanied by violence, imprisonment is not imposed on the juvenile. If the corresponding article of the Special Part of the Criminal Code does not provide for a punishment other than imprisonment for a crime of minor or medium severity, the court shall appoint a milder punishment not related to the deprivation of liberty` available in the penal system, which is applicable to the minor.

 In this regard, it should be noted that the new regulations are significantly different from the existing regulations of the previous criminal code, which allowed the juvenile to be deprived of his liberty in the case of committing a crime of minor or medium severity.

- Please provide the three most significant decisions concerning the interpretation and application of the 1996 Convention recently rendered by the relevant authorities³ in your State.
