*Methods for ensuring the safe return of children*¹⁰

5.1 What measures has your Central Authority taken to ensure that the recommendations of the 2006 and 2011 / 2012 Special Commission meetings¹¹ regarding the safe return of children are implemented?

The Singapore Central Authority ensures that the necessary safety measures are in place for the returning child. For instance, if the Family Justice Courts decides that the child should be returned and the Court had determined that there are concerns of welfare relating to the child, the Singapore Central Authority will request the assistance of the Central Authority of the child's country of habitual residence to ensure that the child will be protected and not be subjected to any harm upon his or her return.

5.2 In particular, in a case where the safety of a child is in issue and where a return order has been made in your State, how does your Central Authority ensure that the appropriate child protection bodies in the requesting State are alerted so that they may act to protect the welfare of a child upon return (until the appropriate court in the requesting State has been effectively seised)?

The Singapore Central Authority will request for the foreign Central Authority to liaise with the relevant child protection bodies in the requesting State for measures to ensure that the child will be protected and not be subjected to any harm upon return.

5.3 Where there are concerns in the requested State regarding possible risks for a child following a return, what conditions or requirements can the relevant authority in your State put in place to minimise or eliminate those concerns?

The Singapore Central Authority works closely with overseas Central Authorities in ensuring the child's safety and monitoring the effectiveness of measures put in place upon the child's return. We fully support the recommendation that State Parties should co-operate to provide each other with follow-up information on such matters, insofar as is possible.

5.8 If your State is not Party to the 1996 Convention, is consideration being given to the possible advantages of the 1996 Convention in providing a jurisdictional basis for requesting a report on the situation of the child upon return to the State of habitual residence (Art. 32-(a))?
