

Central Authorities Germany - Convention of 18 March 1970 on the Taking of Evidence Abroad in Civil or Commercial Matters (HCCH 1970 Evidence Convention)

Requests shall, in principle, be addressed to the Central Authority of the Land where the request is to be complied with. Requests may also be transmitted to the Federal Office of Justice in its capacity as Federal Central Authority; the Federal Office of Justice will forward the request to the competent Central Authority. To save time, however, it is advised to transmit requests directly to the Central Authority of the relevant Land. Contact details of these authorities).

Federal Central Authority

Please note: In order to avoid unnecessary delays it is strongly advised to transmit requests directly to the Central Authority of the Land where the request is to be complied with (see above). Requests may, however, be transmitted to the Federal Office of Justice which will forward requests to the Central Authority of the relevant federal state (Land).
