3. Please provide the three most significant decisions concerning the interpretation and application of the 1980 Convention rendered since the 2017 SC by the relevant authorities⁴ in your State.

Case Name	Court Name	Court Level	Brief summary of the ruling
T-v-S (12.11.009.0 23)	FAMILY COURT OF NICOSIA	FIRST INSTANCE	The Nicosia Family Court, with its Decision under ref. no. 3/2021, dated 26/11/2021, has rejected the return application of the 4 children filed by the father. In particular, the Court held that: 1. Indeed, as the father's version, the habitual place of residence of the children was Bulgaria immediately before their transfer to Cyprus, as the father had custody of the children immediately before their stay in Cyprus and there was indeed an illegal retention by the respondent. The Court rejected the respondent's version, in relation to the conditions of the children's transfer and the alleged agreement between the parents, as unconvincing. 2. In relation to the couple's eldest daughter 14 years old, the Court held that Article 13 (b) of the Convention applied, although, the Court rejected the respondent's version that there had been sexual harassment by the applicant. Nevertheless, due to the facts presented and the fact that the testimony of the respondent mother regarding the father's relationship with a 14-year-old in Bulgaria was not

			refuted by any testimony of the father, the Court ruled that the return of the child in Bulgaria, you would expose her to a serious danger that is not in line with her age. Also, during the interview the minor had with the Court, it became clear that she opposes to her return to Bulgaria and has adapted to her new environment. 3. With regard to the two youngest children, the Court, in an interview with them, found that they were mature enough to be able to express their will to return to Bulgaria and that they also opposed to their return and that have also adapted to their new environment. In view of all the above, the Court concluded that the defence of Article 12 (b) exists in the present case and therefore rejected the application.
A.S -v- R.G (12.11.009.001)	FAMILY COURT OF NICOSIA	FIRST INSTANCE	The Nicosia Family Court, with its Decision under ref. no. 2/2018, dated 15/41/2019, has rejected the return application of the child filed by the father. In particular, the Court held that the defence of Art. 13 (b) applied namely the child would be exposed in physical and psychological harm by her return to UK.
C.T G -v-G.K	FAMILY COURT OF PAPHOS (Appl. 24/2019)	EUROPEAN COURTS OF HUMAN RIGHTS (THIRD SECTION CASE OF G.K. v. CYPRUS) (Application no. 16205/21)	The Paphos Family Court, with its Decision under ref. no. 24/2019, dated 29/1/2021, ordered the return of the child to the USA, filed by the father. In particular, the Court held that the defence of Art. 13 (b) filed by the mother could not be established. On 19 March 2021 the Family Court of Second Instance upheld the first-instance court’s judgment in its entirety and dismissed the appeal filed by the mother. on 21/2/2023 the European Court of Human Rights, by its Decision in Application no. 16205/21, (CASE OF G.K. v. CYPRUS) holded that there has been no violation of Article 8 of the Convention.

4. Please provide a brief summary of any other significant developments in your State since the 2017 SC.

1. For the case of parental child abductions, various government Authorities cooperate, the civil and criminal procedures concerning the parental abduction are activated, the appropriate diplomatic actions are taken and support and guidance is provided to the left behind parents.

To record this cooperation, the Ministry of Justice and Public Order, as the Central Authority prepared in December 2017 a "Cooperation Protocol". The Protocol, which has been approved by a Council of Ministers Decision in 2018, has been concluded between these state Authorities and records the actions and obligations of each involved Authority for the common goal of enforcing the Convention and especially the Return Orders.

2. The Law providing for Mediation in Family Disputes (L 62(I)/2019) was passed in Cyprus in April 2019. This law is expected to contribute substantially to consensual approaches, and to reducing conflicts in cases of domestic disputes, improving communication between family members, fully guaranteeing the rights of children, as well as lightening the load for the justice system, since it is an extrajudicial mechanism for solving domestic disputes.

In accordance with the provisions of the law, the Ministry of Justice and Public Order, has prepared Regulations, which determine: (a) the cost of registering on the Family Disputes Mediators Register, (b) the pay for a mediator for carrying out mediation and (c) special training that is required in order to register on the Family Disputes Mediators Register.

These Regulations were approved by the House of Representatives in December 2022, and since then, the Ministry of Justice has undertaken to create and maintain a Family Disputes Mediators Register. However, this is expected to be made possible when, and provided that Parliament votes on a relevant amendment which has been drawn up in order to determine and improve certain issues in the law which regard the preconditions for Mediators to register. Essentially, passing the amending law in question will allow for an immediate activation of the provisions of the Law on Mediation in Family Disputes, and will accelerate the functioning of the institution of family mediation in Cyprus.

Voluntary agreements and bringing about an amicable resolution of the issues

18. How does your Central Authority (either directly or through any intermediary) take, or is considering taking, appropriate steps under Article 7(c) to bring about an amicable resolution of the issues? Please explain:

Mediation is not currently offered by the CA.

The Law providing for Mediation in Family Disputes (L 62(I)/2019) was voted in Cyprus in April 2019. This law is expected to contribute substantially to consensual approaches, and to reducing conflicts in cases of domestic disputes, improving communication between family members, fully guaranteeing the rights of children, as well as lightening the load for the justice system, since it is an extrajudicial mechanism for solving domestic disputes.

In accordance with the provisions of the law, the Ministry of Justice and Public Order, has prepared Regulations, which determine: (a) the cost of registering on the Family Disputes Mediators Register, (b) the pay for a mediator for carrying out mediation and (c) special training that is required in order to register on the Family Disputes Mediators Register.

These Regulations were approved by the House of Representatives in December 2022, and since then, the Ministry of Justice has undertaken to create and maintain a Family Disputes Mediators Register. However, this is expected to be made possible when, and provided that Parliament votes on a relevant amendment which has been drawn up in order to determine and improve certain issues in the law which regard the preconditions for Mediators to register. Essentially, passing the amending law in question will allow for an immediate activation of the provisions of the Law on Mediation in Family Disputes, and will accelerate the functioning of the institution of family mediation in Cyprus.

19. In the case that your Central Authority offers mediation services, or other alternative dispute resolution methods to bring about an amicable resolution of the issues, has your Central Authority reviewed these procedures in the light of the framework of international child abduction cases (e.g., by providing trained, specialised mediators, including with cross-cultural competence and necessary language skills⁸)?

Please specify:

20. Should the services mentioned in the question above not yet be provided, does your Central Authority intend to provide them in the future?

Please provide comments:

The CA will examine the possibility once the domestic Law mentioned in 18. is fully implemented.

21. Has your State considered, or is it in the process of considering, the establishment of a central service for international family mediation to facilitate access to information on available mediation services and related issues for cross-border family disputes involving children?⁹

No

¹⁸ See the C&R of the 2006 SC at paras 1.7.4-1.7.5, C&R No 84 of the 2012 SC, and C&R No 21 of the 2017 SC, the latter of which says: "The Special Commission recalls the importance of securing effective access to procedures to the parties in international family relocation cases. In this regard, the Special Commission notes that: i) mediation services may assist the parties to solve these cases or prepare for outcomes; ii) the Washington Declaration of 25 March 2010 on Cross-border Family Relocation may be of interest to competent authorities, in particular in the absence of domestic rules on this matter. The Special Commission recommends joining the 1996 Convention."

PART II – TRAINING, EDUCATION AND POST-CONVENTION SERVICES
