34. Contributions, co-operation projects and donations²⁶
a) Is it mandatory for a receiving State (either through its Central Authority or authorised foreign accredited bodies) to pay a contribution²⁷ to your State if it wishes to engage in intercountry adoption in your State? For good practices relating to contributions, see the "Note on the financial aspects of intercountry adoption" at Chapter 6.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes – please explain: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What type of contribution is required: • Who is responsible for paying it (i.e., the Central Authority or the relevant authorised foreign accredited body): • How it is ensured that contributions do not influence or otherwise compromise the integrity of the intercountry adoption process: <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No
b) Are receiving States (either through their Central Authority or authorised foreign accredited bodies) permitted to undertake co-operation projects in your State?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes – it is a mandatory requirement for authorisation to be granted to a foreign accredited body. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes – it is permitted but not required. In either of the above cases, please explain: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What type of co-operation projects are permitted: • Who may undertake such projects (i.e., the Central Authority and / or

²⁷ See further the Terminology, supra, note 24, which states that there are two types of contributions: (1) contributions demanded by the State of origin, which are mandatory and meant to improve either the adoption system or the child protection system. The amount is set by the State of origin. These contributions are managed by the authorities or others appropriately authorised in the State of origin which decide how the funds will be used; (2) contributions demanded by the accredited body from PAPs. These contributions may be for particular children's institutions (e.g., for maintenance costs for the child) or for the co-operation projects of the accredited body in the State of origin. The co-operation projects may be a condition of the authorisation of that body to work in the State of origin. The amount is set by the accredited body or its partners. The payment may not be a statutory obligation and accredited bodies may present the demand in terms of "highly recommended contribution", but in practice it is "mandatory" for the PAPs in the sense that their application will not proceed if the payment is not made.

	authorised foreign accredited bodies): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Whether such projects are monitored by an authority / body in your State: • How it is ensured that co-operation projects do not influence or otherwise compromise the integrity of the intercountry adoption process: <input type="checkbox"/> No
c) Does your State permit PAPs or authorised foreign accredited bodies to make donations to orphanages, institutions or birth families in your State? N.B.
