

Paula Távora Vítor

Paula Távora Vítor was born in 1978, graduated in 2001 and completed her Master's degree in 2005. She received her Ph.D. in Civil Law in 2017 and became a Professor at the Faculty of Law of the University of Coimbra (Portugal) in that same year, where she teaches Family Law, Succession Law and Civil Procedure Law.

Paula Távora Vítor is a member of the Executive Board of Family Law Centre and of the Editorial Board of "Lex Familiae – Portuguese Family Law Review".

She is also a member of the Institute for Legal Research (Faculty of Law of the University of Coimbra), of the Biomedical Law Center and of the International Society of Family Law.

She has participated in several projects on Law of Persons and Family Law, as author or co-author of the portuguese national reports, led by institutions that include the Académie internationale de droit compare and the Commission on European Family Law.

Selected bibliography on the subject of vulnerable adults: (i) As author: "Comentário ao art.º 25.º da Carta dos Direitos Fundamentais da União Europeia", Carta dos Direitos Fundamentais da União Europeia, Almedina, 2013; "Reflections on the Duty to Care for the Elderly in Portugal", in Regulating Family Responsibilities, Ashgate, Aldershot, 2011; "A administração do património das pessoas com capacidade diminuída", Coimbra Editora, 2008; (ii) in collaboration: : R. Frimston et al., "International Protection of Adults", OUP, Oxford, 2015.