

Article 93. § 1. Parental authority shall be vested in both parents.

§ 2. If the good of the child so requires, the court, in the judgment establishing the child's parentage, may decide on the suspension, limitation or deprivation of parental authority of one or both parents. The provisions of article 107 and articles 109-111 shall apply accordingly.