Resumen de respuestas al cuestionario de 2022 relativo al Convenio sobre Notificaciones

I. Introducción

- 1 De conformidad con el mandato otorgado por el Consejo de Asuntos Generales y Política (CAGP) en sus reuniones de 2021 y 2022,¹ en diciembre de 2022 la Oficina Permanente (OP) distribuyó dos cuestionarios sobre el funcionamiento práctico del Convenio de 15 de noviembre de 1965 sobre la Notificación o Traslado en el Extranjero de Documentos Judiciales y Extrajudiciales en Materia Civil o Comercial (Convenio sobre Notificaciones o Convenio). Uno de ellos estaba dirigido a las Partes contratantes del Convenio² y el otro a Partes no contratantes.
- 2 El cuestionario dirigido a las Partes contratantes abarcaba una serie de temas, entre ellos el ámbito de aplicación y el funcionamiento del Convenio, la utilización de las tecnologías de la información para transmitir y dar curso a las solicitudes de notificación o traslado en el extranjero, posibles cuestiones para debatir en la próxima reunión de la Comisión Especial (CE), y datos y estadísticas relativos al Convenio. La información recibida de las Partes contratantes en respuesta a este cuestionario servirá para preparar la agenda de la reunión de la CE. Las respuestas también se tuvieron en cuenta a los efectos de actualizar el Manual Práctico sobre el Funcionamiento del Convenio sobre Notificaciones (Manual Práctico). El cuestionario para las Partes no contratantes tenía como objetivo averiguar si estos Estados habían considerado, o estaban considerando, adherirse al Convenio sobre Notificaciones.
- 3 Los cuestionarios se distribuyeron a todos los Miembros de la HCCH y a las Partes contratantes del Convenio sobre Notificaciones, y la fecha límite para responder era el 31 de marzo de 2023. Ante la decisión del CAGP de posponer la reunión de la CE al ejercicio económico 2024-2025,³ la OP amplió el plazo para la presentación de respuestas hasta el 9 de junio de 2023 y continuó aceptando respuestas después de esa fecha. Este resumen incluye todas las respuestas recibidas hasta el 30 de noviembre de 2023.
- 4 Cuando se distribuyeron los cuestionarios, el Convenio sobre Notificaciones contaba con 79 Partes contratantes.⁴ La OP recibió en total 50 respuestas a los cuestionarios, 49⁵ de ellas de 47 Partes contratantes.⁶ Esto significa que, de las 79 Partes contratantes del Convenio, aproximadamente el 59% respondieron al cuestionario. Una Parte no contratante también respondió al cuestionario.⁷

2 “Cuestionario relativo al Convenio de 15 de noviembre de 1965 sobre la Notificación o Traslado en el Extranjero de Documentos Judiciales y Extrajudiciales en Materia Civil o Comercial (Convenio sobre Notificaciones)” Doc. Prel. N.º 1 de diciembre de 2022 (en adelante, “Cuestionario de 2022 sobre Notificaciones”).

3 CyD N.º 39 del CAGP de 2023. En su reunión de marzo de 2024, el CAGP confirmó que la reunión de la CE tendría lugar del 2 al 5 de julio de 2024 (CyD N.º 46 del CAGP de 2024).

4 Al momento de la publicación del presente Documento Preliminar, el Convenio sobre Notificaciones contaba con 84 Partes contratantes.

5 La Región Administrativa Especial (RAE) de Hong Kong y la RAE de Macao de la República Popular China (China) presentaron respuestas separadas al cuestionario, además de China (continental). Estas respuestas se contabilizaron y analizaron por separado a pesar de que todas ellas corresponden a la misma Parte contratante. Según proceda, se consideran respuestas individuales.

La Unión Europea (UE) también ha facilitado información complementaria sobre el derecho de la UE en materia de la notificación o traslado de documentos en el extranjero.

6 Albania, Andorra, Argentina, Armenia, Australia, Austria, Azerbaiyán, Brasil, Bulgaria, Alemania, Canadá, China, Chipre, Costa Rica, Croacia, Eslovaquia, Eslovenia, Estados Unidos de América, Estonia, Filipinas, Finlandia, Francia, Georgia, Hungría, Irlanda, India, Israel, Italia, Japón, Kazajstán, Letonia, Lituania, México, Montenegro, Nicaragua, Noruega, Polonia, Portugal, Reino Unido, República Checa, Rumania, San Marino, Serbia, Suecia, Suiza, Turquía y Viet Nam.

7 Singapur. Cabe señalar que al momento de responder al cuestionario para Partes no contratantes, Singapur aún no era Parte contratante. Sin embargo, se adhirió al Convenio el 16 de mayo de 2023, y el Convenio entró en vigor para Singapur el 1 de diciembre de 2023.

La OP está muy agradecida a los encuestados por el tiempo y el esfuerzo dedicados a responder los cuestionarios.

- 5 En el presente documento solo se resumen las respuestas de las Partes contratantes. Las respuestas recibidas de las Partes no contratantes se utilizarán para iniciativas de promoción y trabajo bilateral, por lo que no se han incluido en el análisis de este documento.
- 6 El resumen fue elaborado a partir de la información obtenida de las respuestas. Cuando estas no fueron claras, no fueron tenidas en cuenta. Del mismo modo, cuando los encuestados no respondieron a determinadas preguntas, la OP no tuvo en cuenta esas respuestas para el cálculo de los porcentajes. Con todo, el resumen no pretende ser concluyente ni exhaustivo; como se indica en varios casos, las respuestas de los Estados no siempre ofrecen una visión completa de su legislación y sus prácticas.
- 7 El anexo contiene una compilación de las respuestas de las Partes contratantes a cada una de las preguntas. Las respuestas de cada una de las Partes contratantes (en los casos en que autorizaron su publicación) se publicarán en la Sección Notificaciones del sitio web de la HCCH.⁸

II. Comentarios generales

- 8 La mayoría de los encuestados calificaron el funcionamiento general del Convenio como “bueno” o “excelente”.⁹ Dos de los 49 encuestados lo calificaron de “satisfactorio”, mientras que otros dos señalaron que “requiere mejoras”. En esas últimas dos respuestas señalaron que la utilización del Formulario Modelo plantea dificultades, por ejemplo, deficiencias en la dirección de la persona a la que haya de notificarse o trasladarse el documento o en la información requerida para efectuar la notificación o el traslado; incumplimiento de la obligación de presentar documentos en dos ejemplares y/o su traducción; no acusar recibo de las solicitudes transmitidas en virtud del Convenio por autoridades extranjeras, y dificultades de comunicación con las autoridades remitentes y las Autoridades Centrales.
- 9 En cuanto a la pregunta relativa a la facilidad de uso del Manual Práctico,¹⁰ el 73% de los encuestados respondieron que era “buena”, el 16%, “excelente”, y el 6%, “satisfactoria”. En una proporción menor de respuestas (4%), se indicó que el Manual Práctico “requiere mejoras”.
- 10 Según las respuestas, el 70% de las Autoridades Centrales hacen un seguimiento de las solicitudes recibidas en el marco del Convenio sobre Notificaciones, mientras que el 9% no lo hace.¹¹ En el caso de las Autoridades Centrales que realizan un seguimiento de las solicitudes recibidas, la mayoría dispone de un registro o sistema electrónico de gestión de casos:

|--|-----|
| Electrónico, para solicitudes recibidas y enviadas | 49% |
| Electrónico, solo para solicitudes recibidas | 14% |
| Manual, para solicitudes recibidas y enviadas | 14% |

En el caso de los encuestados que seleccionaron “otros” para aportar más información sobre el sistema que utilizan para hacer seguimiento de las solicitudes recibidas, la mayoría describieron un sistema de gestión de casos. Tres Estados federales señalaron la existencia de prácticas diferentes según el territorio.

- 11 Se preguntó a las Partes contratantes si su Autoridad Central hace un seguimiento de todas las solicitudes enviadas al extranjero.¹² Del 35% de los encuestados que respondieron que sí, el 69% utiliza un sistema electrónico para hacer un seguimiento, mientras que el 31% lo registra manualmente. Aproximadamente el 37% de los encuestados respondieron que no. La mayoría de los encuestados que respondieron “otros” señalaron que su Autoridad Central solo interviene en la tramitación de las solicitudes recibidas.
- 12 Según las respuestas, en 2022, el ~~3837~~4245% de los encuestados dieron curso a las solicitudes recibidas en un plazo de 1 a 3 meses, el ~~4245~~4245%, en un plazo de 3 a 6 meses, y el ~~107~~107%, en un plazo de 6 a 12 meses. El ~~57~~57% de los encuestados dieron curso a solicitudes en menos de un mes y el ~~54~~54%, en un plazo de más de 12 meses.¹³ Cabe destacar que 16 encuestados señalaron que los tiempos para dar curso a las solicitudes transmitidas por vía electrónica son significativa o moderadamente más rápidos que los de las transmitidas por correo postal.

III. Ámbito de aplicación del Convenio

- 13 Aproximadamente el 59% de los encuestados no han tenido dificultades para interpretar el ámbito de aplicación del Convenio en el período de cinco años comprendido entre 2017 y 2022.¹⁴ El 26% indicaron que han tenido problemas en cuanto a la interpretación de “materia civil o comercial” (art. 1), y la mayoría de ellos consideran que existen dudas sobre si la materia administrativa queda comprendida en el ámbito de aplicación del Convenio. En el resto de las respuestas se indicaron otras dificultades, entre ellas el funcionamiento de los artículos 8 y 9 (vías diplomática y consular), la preparación del Formulario Modelo y la localización de la persona a la que haya de notificarse o trasladarse un documento.
- 14 El 78% de los encuestados indicaron que en su derecho interno no se definen los “documentos extrajudiciales” (art. 17), mientras que el 22% indicaron que este término sí se encuentra definido en su derecho interno.¹⁵ Algunos Estados miembros de la Unión Europea (UE) se refirieron al concepto de “documentos extrajudiciales” del Reglamento de la UE de 2020 relativo a la notificación y traslado de documentos,¹⁶ y a la interpretación dada por el Tribunal de Justicia de la Unión Europea (TJUE).¹⁷
- 15 Los tipos de documentos extrajudiciales que los encuestados transmiten con arreglo al Convenio sobre Notificaciones varían:¹⁸

1. Documentos expedidos por notarios y agentes privados encargados de la ejecución

 2. Documentos otorgados por funcionarios públicos

 3. Decisiones dictadas por registros

| 4. | Decisiones en el marco de procedimientos de mediación, arbitraje y administrativos |
| 5. | Documentos de abogados, relativos a litigios o a la preparación de los mismos |
| 6. | Requerimientos de pago |
| 7. | Documentos relacionados con asuntos de derecho de familia, por ejemplo: decisiones de separación o divorcio y reclamaciones de alimentos para los hijos |
| 8. | Documentos y solicitudes expedidos por autoridades en materia aduanera y fiscal |

IV. Funcionamiento del Convenio

16 El 61% de los encuestados indicaron que, cuando reciben solicitudes de notificación o traslado como Estado requerido, prestan asistencia para localizar a la persona a la que haya de notificarse o trasladarse el documento en virtud del Convenio, mientras que el resto de los encuestados (39%) no prestan dicha asistencia.¹⁹ Para prestar asistencia, la mayoría de los encuestados señalaron que su Autoridad Central puede recurrir a un amplio abanico de fuentes de información, entre ellas bases de datos gubernamentales y registros públicos o comerciales.

17 Se preguntó a las Partes contratantes cómo se transmiten los documentos para su notificación o traslado en el extranjero a otro Estado, a un funcionario del Estado o a una empresa de propiedad estatal.²⁰ Seis encuestados indicaron que el Convenio no se aplicaría en esos casos, mientras que 29 respondieron que el Convenio sí se aplicaría. El resto indicaron la utilización de la vía diplomática y/o la existencia de diferentes vías en función del destinatario.

18 Los 29 que respondieron que consideran que el Convenio se aplica a la notificación o traslado de documentos a otro Estado, a un funcionario del Estado o a una empresa de propiedad estatal, indicaron el uso de diferentes vías. Señalaron las siguientes:²¹

|---|-----|
| Vías principales (art. 5) | 83% |
| Agentes diplomáticos o consulares (art. 8) | 38% |
| Vía consular indirecta (art. 9(1)) | 3% |
| Vía diplomática indirecta (art. 9(2)) | 24% |
| Vía postal (art. 10(a)). | 24% |
| Comunicación directa entre funcionarios judiciales (art. 10(b)) | 3% |
| Comunicación directa entre la persona interesada y los funcionarios judiciales (art. 10(c)) | 3% |

19 Casi la totalidad de los encuestados (89%) realizan la notificación o traslado de documentos judiciales y extrajudiciales de la misma forma.²² Uno de los encuestados indicó que la notificación

o traslado de documentos judiciales la efectúa un agente o auxiliar judicial u otro notificador a instancia de la Corte Suprema de la jurisdicción requerida, mientras que los documentos extrajudiciales son remitidos por la Autoridad Central a un agente privado para que se encargue de la notificación.

A. Vía principal de transmisión (art. 5)

- 20 En cuanto a la pregunta sobre qué autoridades o personas son competentes para remitir una solicitud de notificación o traslado a una Autoridad Central extranjera, los encuestados indicaron las siguientes autoridades:²³

|---|-----|
| Tribunales | 59% |
| Fiscales | 7% |
| Funcionarios a cargo de un registro | 13% |
| Auxiliares judiciales (huissiers) | 13% |
| Notificadores judiciales (process servers) | 4% |
| Autoridades Centrales | 65% |
| Otros | 26% |

De las respuestas se desprende que existe una gran diversidad de autoridades remitentes. Los encuestados que seleccionaron “otros”, para indicar otras autoridades, mencionaron distintas autoridades y personas competentes, por ejemplo: notarios, agentes encargados de la ejecución, abogados y otros organismos estatales.

- 21 Aunque el Convenio no lo exige, el 48% de los encuestados señalaron que las solicitudes enviadas al extranjero deben transmitirse a través de su Autoridad Central.²⁴ Las razones más citadas fueron la especialización y los conocimientos lingüísticos de la Autoridad Central. Algunos encuestados también consideran que su Autoridad Central es la más idónea para comprobar si la solicitud de notificación o traslado cumple los requisitos establecidos en el Convenio y el derecho del Estado requerido.
- 22 Cuando el solicitante no exige ninguna forma en particular de notificación, la forma principal/por defecto varía de un encuestado a otro:²⁵

|--|-----|
| Simple entrega (aceptación voluntaria) (art. 5(2)) | 4% |
| Notificación personal | 33% |
| Por correo | 21% |
| Por citación judicial | 19% |
| Por correo electrónico | 0% |

|-------------------------------|-----|
| Por otros medios electrónicos | 4% |
| Otros | 19% |

23 En el período de cinco años comprendido entre 2017 y 2022, el 47% de los encuestados recibieron alguna solicitud en la que se indicaba una forma de notificación en particular (art. 5.1.b)), mientras que el 32% declararon no haber recibido ninguna solicitud de una forma en particular, y el 21% indicaron que no sabían.²⁶

24 Entre las formas de notificación solicitadas, las respuestas (desde la perspectiva de un Estado requerido) indican una preferencia por la notificación personal, seguida de la notificación por correo electrónico y por correo postal:²⁷

|-------------------------------|-----|
| Notificación personal | 73% |
| Por correo postal | 14% |
| Por citación judicial | 9% |
| Por correo electrónico | 18% |
| Por otros medios electrónicos | 9% |

25 Solo tres encuestados indicaron no poder dar curso a las solicitudes relativas a determinadas formas de notificación, bien por no disponer de recursos para efectuar la notificación personal, bien por no contar con procedimientos para notificar documentos por medios electrónicos, incluido el correo electrónico.²⁸

26 Desde la perspectiva de los Estados requirentes, el 39% de los encuestados declararon no haber transmitido solicitudes con una forma de notificación específica, mientras que el 35% respondieron no saber si se había solicitado una forma específica.²⁹ En cambio, casi el 26% de los indicaron haber solicitado una forma específica en el período de cinco años comprendido entre 2017 y 2022. Las respuestas muestran de nuevo una preferencia por la notificación personal, seguida de la citación judicial y por correo postal.³⁰

27 El 58% indicaron haber dado curso a las solicitudes, mientras que el 42% respondieron que no sabían.³¹ Por último, tres encuestados señalaron que existen costos asociados a la notificación personal y a la notificación efectuada por un agente judicial (bailliff).

B. Vías de transmisión alternativas (arts. 8, 9 y 10)

1. Utilización del Formulario Modelo

28 En cuanto a la transmisión de una solicitud de notificación o traslado por vías alternativas casi el 40% de los encuestados respondieron que utilizan las secciones “Aviso” y “Elementos esenciales del documento”.³² El 24% de ellos indicaron que “siempre” utilizan el Formulario Modelo. El 44% de los encuestados respondieron que desconocen si el Formulario se utiliza para la notificación por vías alternativas. El 7% confirmaron que “nunca” utilizan el Formulario, y el 9% respondieron que no lo utilizan debido a haber formulado una objeción en relación con el uso de las vías alternativas.

- 29 Desde la perspectiva de los Estados de destino, el 54% de los encuestados indicaron que la sección “Certificado” del Formulario Modelo se utiliza para informar si los documentos han sido notificados.³³ De ellos, el 43% utilizan siempre el Formulario. El 24% respondieron no saber si se utiliza el Formulario, uno respondió que “nunca” se utiliza, y el 20%, que no lo utilizan debido a haber formulado una objeción en relación con el uso de las vías alternativas.

2. Agentes diplomáticos y consulares (art. 8)

- 30 Las respuestas muestran que, en el período de cinco años comprendido entre 2017 y 2022, los agentes diplomáticos y consulares de casi la mitad de los encuestados (43%) han efectuado directamente la notificación o traslado de documentos judiciales o extrajudiciales a personas en el extranjero (art. 8.1).³⁴ El resto de las respuestas estuvieron divididas en partes iguales entre “no”, los agentes diplomáticos o consulares no han efectuado directamente la notificación o traslado a una persona en el extranjero (21%), y los que no saben (21%). Para el 15% de los encuestados, la vía diplomática y consular directa no es aplicable debido a una objeción.
- 31 Algunos encuestados (17%) indicaron que, en el período de cinco años comprendido entre 2017 y 2022, las notificaciones por medio de agentes diplomáticos o consulares del Estado habían sido rechazadas por el destinatario.³⁵ En cambio, el 22% señalaron lo contrario. Sin embargo, en casi la mitad de los casos (46%), los encuestados respondieron que no disponen de información al respecto.

3. Vías diplomática y consular (art. 9)

- 32 Se preguntó a las Partes contratantes si habían utilizado las vías consular y diplomática para transmitir documentos en el período de cinco años comprendido entre 2017 y 2022.³⁶ Las respuestas muestran que el número de encuestados que utilizan una o ambas vías es parejo:

| Vía consular | |
|--------------|-----|
| Sí | 34% |
| No | 40% |
| No sabe | 23% |
| No aplicable | 2% |

| Vía diplomática | |
|-----------------|-----|
| Sí | 32% |
| No | 36% |
| No sabe | 30% |
| No aplicable | 2% |

33 La razón más citada para recurrir a la vía diplomática fue la notificación o traslado de documentos a Estados o funcionarios públicos extranjeros. Algunos encuestados también mencionaron otras circunstancias excepcionales, como la suspensión de los servicios postales durante los conflictos entre la Federación de Rusia y Ucrania, y el brote de COVID-19.

4. Vía postal (art. 10(a))

34 Veintidós encuestados formularon una objeción a la notificación o traslado por la vía postal en virtud del artículo 10(a) del Convenio.³⁷ A pesar de haber formulado una objeción en virtud del artículo 10(a), el 50% de los encuestados, en calidad de Estado de origen, siguen utilizando la vía postal para la notificación o traslado.³⁸ Sin embargo, uno de los encuestados señaló que, como Estado de destino, no acepta el uso de la vía postal cuando los documentos proceden de un Estado que ha formulado una objeción en virtud del artículo 10(a).³⁹

35 Se preguntó a las Partes contratantes qué categorías reconocen como “vía postal”:⁴⁰

|---|-----|
| Correo ordinario | 50% |
| Correo certificado con acuse de recibo | 54% |
| Mensajería privada, p. ej.: FedEx | 33% |
| Correo electrónico | 13% |
| Correo electrónico a través de una agencia postal estatal | 0% |
| Otra | 13% |

36 Por lo que respecta a los encuestados que no han presentado una objeción en virtud del artículo 10(a), 7 consideran que la notificación o traslado por correo electrónico es análoga a la notificación o traslado por vía postal, mientras que 11 no opinan que así sea.⁴¹

37 Por último, el 38% de los encuestados indicaron que exigen que los documentos que vayan a notificarse o trasladarse por vía postal se traduzcan a una de sus lenguas oficiales.⁴² En cambio, la mayoría de los encuestados (62%) no lo exige.

5. Funcionarios judiciales, ministeriales u otras personas competentes (art. 10(b))

38 Más de la mitad de los encuestados (57%) han formulado una objeción al uso de las comunicaciones directas entre funcionarios judiciales, ministeriales u otras personas competentes en virtud del artículo 10(b).⁴³

39 En el caso de los encuestados que no han formulado una objeción en virtud del artículo 10(b), los siguientes funcionarios son reconocidos como “funcionarios judiciales, ministeriales u otras personas competentes”:⁴⁴

|--|-----|
| Abogados | 64% |
| Auxiliares judiciales (bailiff) | 57% |
| Auxiliares judiciales (huissier) | 50% |
| Funcionarios judiciales | 71% |
| Notarios | 43% |
| Funcionarios del Poder Ejecutivo | 14% |
| Notificadores judiciales (process server) | 43% |
| Otros | 43% |

40 Para el 53% de los encuestados, existen gastos asociados a la transmisión y notificación o traslado de documentos por esta vía.⁴⁵ Mientras que el 12% indicaron que no hay costos, el 35% respondieron que no saben.

6. Persona interesada en un procedimiento judicial (art. 10(c))

41 El 62% de los encuestados han formulado una objeción al uso de las comunicaciones directas entre una parte interesada y los funcionarios judiciales, ministeriales u otras personas competentes en virtud del artículo 10(c).⁴⁶

42 En el caso de los encuestados que no han formulado una objeción en virtud del artículo 10(c), los siguientes funcionarios son reconocidos como “persona interesada en un procedimiento judicial”:⁴⁷

| Abogados | 71% |
| Auxiliares judiciales (bailiff) | 50% |

43 Seis de los encuestados indicaron que existen gastos asociados a la transmisión y notificación o traslado de documentos por esta vía.⁴⁸ Solo dos encuestados indicaron que no hay gastos, y el resto respondieron que desconocían la respuesta o que habían formulado una objeción a la notificación en virtud del artículo 10(c).

C. Denegación del cumplimiento de la solicitud (art. 13)

44 Las respuestas muestran que, en el período de cinco años comprendido entre 2017 y 2022, solo un pequeño número de encuestados (19%) han denegado una solicitud de notificación o traslado por implicar un atentado “a su soberanía o a su seguridad”.⁴⁹ Según uno de los encuestados, algunos de los motivos por los que puede denegarse una solicitud en virtud del artículo 13 del Convenio son el embargo de fondos soberanos, las demandas relacionadas con actividades en tiempo de guerra, el embargo de activos soberanos, y no tener constancia de la notificación de un procedimiento cuando se pretende notificar o ejecutar una sentencia dictada en rebeldía. Otro encuestado también señaló que se habían denegado solicitudes de notificación o traslado en litigios en materia de patentes.

45 A pesar de ello, la mayoría de los encuestados (62%) respondieron que no han denegado solicitudes de notificación o traslado en el período de cinco años comprendido entre 2017 y 2022, mientras que el 19% respondieron que no lo saben. Estas cifras demuestran que el Convenio ha estado funcionando bien, y es poco frecuente que las Partes contratantes denieguen solicitudes de notificación o traslado en virtud del artículo 13.

V. Uso de la tecnología

46 Las respuestas estuvieron divididas por igual en cuanto a si han tomado medidas (incluso a través de legislación) para permitir o aumentar el uso de la tecnología en el funcionamiento del Convenio.⁵⁰ Los encuestados comunicaron varios avances a este respecto, como el establecimiento de plataformas y sistemas en línea para la transmisión de solicitudes, para el pago de gastos y para la comunicación con autoridades extranjeras. Otro grupo de encuestados también señalaron mejoras con el uso del correo electrónico para la transmisión y recepción de solicitudes.

47 El 33% de los encuestados transmiten solicitudes por vía electrónica en el marco del Convenio.⁵¹ En este contexto, las respuestas revelan una preferencia por el uso del correo electrónico, seguido de otros métodos de transmisión:⁵²

| Otros | 31% |

48 Es de destacar que el 53% de los encuestados no aceptan solicitudes de notificación o traslado transmitidas electrónicamente en circunstancias en las que solo se presenta una copia electrónica.⁵³ Estos encuestados señalaron las siguientes razones por las que esto aún no es posible: la falta de políticas y procedimientos a nivel global para garantizar la identidad de la autoridad remitente; la integridad de los documentos; y el cumplimiento de las leyes de protección de datos. Algunos de estos encuestados también indicaron limitaciones de derecho interno.

49 Los encuestados que aceptan solicitudes de notificación o traslado transmitidas electrónicamente, en circunstancias en las que sólo se presenta una copia electrónica, indican el uso de diferentes métodos electrónicos de transmisión:⁵⁴

| Transmisión electrónica mediante tecnología de registro distribuido (TRD) | 0% |
| Otros | 14% |

50 Se preguntó a las Partes contratantes si permiten la realización de la notificación o traslado por medios electrónicos.⁵⁵ El 67% de los encuestados respondió que sí. El método varía:

Los encuestados que seleccionaron “otros” para aportar más información aclararon que la notificación por medios electrónicos puede permitirse en determinadas circunstancias y bajo ciertas condiciones, como el consentimiento de las partes y/o la autorización del juez competente.

- 51 Señalaron que las razones para rehusarse a dar curso a las solicitudes de notificación o traslado por medios electrónicos pueden ser:⁵⁶

| El derecho interno prohíbe el uso de la tecnología | 7% |
| El derecho interno no contempla el uso de la tecnología | 33% |
| No hay un sistema compatible con la tecnología requerida en su Estado | 40% |
| Las autoridades no están familiarizadas con este tipo de tecnología | 0% |
| Otros | 33% |

- 52 Por último, se pidió a las Partes contratantes que indicaran los posibles desafíos a los que se enfrentan en relación con el uso de las tecnologías de la información en el marco del Convenio sobre Notificaciones.⁵⁷ El 24% de los encuestados consideran que no plantea ningún desafío. En las respuestas en las que se indicaron desafíos, con frecuencia se mencionaron los siguientes: desafíos de implementación; problemas de interoperabilidad/compatibilidad entre sistemas; limitaciones de derecho interno y problemas de seguridad:

⁵⁸ La información y las estadísticas que figuran en esta sección recogen únicamente las cifras indicadas por las Partes contratantes que autorizaron la publicación de sus respuestas en el sitio web de la HCCH.

⁵⁹ Argentina respondió que no se dispone de la información correspondiente a 2020 debido a la pandemia.

⁶⁰ Australia respondió que estas cifras son aproximadas y se refieren únicamente a las solicitudes recibidas por la Autoridad Central; no se recogen las solicitudes rechazadas ni las enviadas directamente a los estados y territorios australianos. Solo se ha facilitado información a partir de 2019, ya que la base de datos electrónica utilizada para registrar y gestionar las solicitudes recibidas por la Autoridad Central se puso en marcha en 2018.

⁶¹ Estonia respondió que la información correspondiente a 2017 es solo parcial.

⁶² Alemania respondió que, como observación preliminar, cabe decir que en Alemania no se llevan estadísticas oficiales sobre el número de solicitudes de notificación y traslado remitidas y recibidas. Las cifras indicadas se basan en información aportada voluntariamente por las Autoridades Centrales de los estados federados en los que se notificaron documentos de conformidad con el Convenio de La Haya sobre Notificaciones. Los datos de 2022 son solo parciales (en algunos de los estados federales aún no se dispone de datos).

⁶⁷ Portugal respondió que muchas de las solicitudes son enviadas de vuelta directamente por la autoridad competente, sin intervención de la Autoridad Central.

⁶⁸ Según la respuesta de Argentina, la mayoría de las solicitudes se reciben por vía electrónica.

⁶⁹ China respondió que su único sistema funciona desde 2019.

⁷⁰ La República Checa respondió que no acepta solicitudes recibidas por vía electrónica, sino únicamente por correo ordinario (en papel).

⁷¹ Francia respondió que su Autoridad Central no dispone de los medios técnicos necesarios para tramitar las solicitudes por vía electrónica. Por lo tanto, se invita a los solicitantes a enviar sus solicitudes por correo.

⁷² Georgia respondió que su Autoridad Central no maneja este tipo de datos. Todas las solicitudes recibidas, tanto por correo electrónico como por correo postal, se integran en un sistema electrónico unificado.

⁷³ Alemania respondió que todavía no es posible enviar una carta rogatoria por vía electrónica. En el caso de las cartas rogatorias recibidas, se requiere una firma y un timbre o sello oficial. Todavía no existe una firma electrónica transfronteriza que permita identificar el origen y la autenticidad de la carta rogatoria a escala mundial.

⁷⁴ La RAE de Hong Kong respondió que, al no aceptarse la transmisión electrónica, no disponen de estadísticas al respecto.

⁷⁵ Lituania respondió que las solicitudes que recibe suelen presentarse en papel, pero que la Autoridad Central también acepta el formato electrónico. No dispone de un número exacto de solicitudes recibidas.

⁷⁶ Nicaragua respondió que, al 2023, ha recibido una diligencia por correo electrónico.

⁸¹ Argentina respondió que no dispone de la información correspondiente a 2020 debido a la pandemia de COVID-19.

⁸² Canadá respondió que no dispone de datos, ya que las solicitudes enviadas en virtud del artículo 5 suelen ser enviadas por miembros de los colegios de abogados de las provincias y territorios canadienses y por miembros de la Chambre des notaires de la provincia de Québec (únicamente para asuntos no contenciosos) que actúan en calidad de autoridades remitentes.

⁸³ La República Checa respondió que la mayoría de las solicitudes de notificación o traslado son remitidas (en papel) por las autoridades remitentes checas (los tribunales checos) directamente a la Autoridad Central del Estado en cuestión. No se dispone de información. No existe ninguna norma jurídica especial que obligue a los tribunales checos a llevar un registro de los casos en los que se aplicó el Convenio de La Haya.

⁸⁴ Según la respuesta de Estonia, en cuanto a 2017, los datos son parciales desde septiembre.

⁸⁵ Véase la respuesta de Francia (nota 78).

⁸⁶ Alemania respondió que, en algunos de los estados federales, aún no se dispone de datos correspondientes a 2022.

⁸⁷ Letonia respondió que, de 2018 a 2022, las solicitudes a Canadá se presentaron a través del Ministerio de Justicia.

⁸⁸ Lituania respondió que sus tribunales (en calidad de autoridades requirentes) gestionan los datos de los casos en su propio sistema de información (LITEKO). La generación estadística automatizada de este sistema funciona sobre la base de clasificaciones de categorías de casos y decisiones procesales de los tribunales. Por desgracia, no existe un código específico para los expedientes relacionados con el Convenio sobre Notificaciones. Por lo tanto, no es posible proporcionar datos precisos sobre las solicitudes remitidas al extranjero.

⁸⁹ Montenegro respondió que las solicitudes remitidas al extranjero no se transmiten a través del Ministerio de Justicia.

⁹¹ Eslovenia respondió que no dispone de datos, ya que las solicitudes las envían directamente los tribunales eslovenos a la Autoridad Central del Estado requerido.

⁹² Argentina respondió que la mayoría de las solicitudes se envían por medios electrónicos.

⁹³ Véase la respuesta de Canadá (nota 82).

⁹⁴ La República Checa respondió que la mayoría de las solicitudes de notificación o traslado se dirigen a la Autoridad Central del Estado requerido solo en papel.

| (2) How does your State rate the useability of the HCCH Practical Handbook on the Operation of the Service Convention? | |
|--|---|
| Argentina | Satisfactory |
| Australia | Good |
| Austria | Good |
| Belgium | Good |
| Brazil | Excellent |
| Bulgaria | Excellent |
| Canada | Requires improvement – “The Handbook should be made available on HCCH.net for free. Access to the Handbook is a matter linked to access to justice. In Canada, members of the law societies of Canadian provinces and territories and members of the Chambre des notaires of the Province of Québec (for non-litigious matters only) are forwarding authorities. We cannot assume that these forwarding authorities who may serve documents abroad very infrequently, will purchase a Handbook. Often, service abroad involves family law matters and clients do not necessarily have the funds to help their legal counsel purchase a copy of the Handbook. As a result of the unavailability of the Handbook for free, the application of the Convention may be negatively impacted in these cases and this may have a negative impact on litigants. Le manuel devrait être disponible gratuitement sur le site HCCH.net. L'accès au Manuel est une question liée à l'accès à la justice. Au Canada, les membres des barreaux des provinces et territoires canadiens et les membres de la Chambre des notaires de la province de Québec (pour les affaires non contentieuses uniquement) sont des autorités expéditrices. Nous ne pouvons pas supposer que ces autorités expéditrices, qui ne signifient des documents à l'étranger que très rarement, achèteront un manuel. Souvent, les significations ou notifications à l'étranger concernent des affaires de droit de la famille et les clients n'ont pas nécessairement les moyens d'aider leur conseiller juridique à acheter un exemplaire du manuel. Le fait que le manuel ne soit pas disponible gratuitement peut avoir un impact négatif sur l'application de la Convention dans ces affaires, ce qui peut avoir des conséquences négatives pour les parties au litige”. |

| China | Yes – electronic for incoming and outgoing |
| Croatia | Yes – electronic for incoming and outgoing |
| Czech Republic | Other – “The Czech Central Authority (Ministry of Justice) has got the electronic register of the incoming requests under the Service Convention. After the registration the incoming requests are forwarded to the competent Czech courts to be served”. |
| Estonia | Other - “Estonia is currently using an electronic system for registration of cases. Due to changes in EU Regulations, EU Commission is currently developing reference implementation software, which the Member States may choose to connect to the decentralised IT system”. |
| France | Oui - électronique pour les demandes reçues et envoyées |
| Georgia | Yes – manual for incoming and outgoing |
| Germany | Other – “There are no federal registers used throughout Germany; some of the Länder use case management registers, some of them electronic registers, some manual registers or other means to track incoming requests. As a remark to questions 3. and 4. as well as preliminary to questions concerning data and statistics it must be underlined that in Germany no official statistics are kept on the number of incoming and outgoing requests for service or on the time to process them. The judicial departments of the Länder, which designate the Central Authorities for their area of competence, have an informal overview, but are only able to provide limited information on content-related aspects of Letters of Request and the time required to process them. Some of the following information is based on their records. It is only of limited informative value. An answer to this question is also given by the European Union”. |
| Hong Kong SAR | Yes – manual for incoming and outgoing |
| Hungary | Other – “The general electronic register system of the Ministry of Justice is used for cases relating to the Service Convention. This system stores basic data of the cases for identification purposes, therefore more detailed information is kept in the paper based files”. |

| (4) If your State’s Central Authority has oversight for all outgoing requests, please indicate if there is a system used to track the progress of these. | |
|--|--|
| Argentina | No |
| Australia | Other – “The Australian Central Authority does not have oversight of outgoing requests” |
| Austria | No |
| Belgium | Other – “Nous n’avons pas de droit de regard sur les dossiers sortants”. |
| Brazil | Yes – electronic. |
| Bulgaria | No |
| China | No |
| Croatia | Yes – electronic. |
| Czech Republic | Other – “Outgoing requests are usually transmitted directly from a judicial authority to the CA of the requested State. However, in some cases, the Letters of Request are transmitted via Central Authority or via diplomatic channels. In these cases, Letters of Request are registered by means of electronic case management. The CA maintains an electronic file service (a case management) in which incoming/outgoing requests for legal aid are registered. The case management enables to monitor the status of their processing”. |
| Estonia | Yes – electronic. |
| France | Oui - électronique |
| Georgia | Yes – manual |
| Germany | Other – “An answer to this question is also given by the European Union”. |
| Hong Kong SAR | Yes – manual |
| Hungary | Other – “See response to question No. 3. All incoming and outgoing correspondence is registered in the case register electronically but the substance can only be known from the file”. |

| Viet Nam | Other – “The Mutual Legal Assistance Request Management Software has some functions such as reminding and alerting when there is no reply for outgoing requests which were sent for a specific time (usually more than 6 months)”. |

II. Scope of the Convention

| (5) In the previous five years, has your State experienced any difficulties in interpreting the scope of the Service Convention? | |
|--|---|
| Argentina | Other – “Articles 8 and 9 of the Service Convention”. |
| Australia | No |
| Austria | No |
| Brazil | Yes, regarding the interpretation of “civil or commercial matters” (Art. 1) – “We do not have clear information about which countries would accept requests under the Convention related to administrative matters or related to administrative improbity”. |
| Bulgaria | Yes, regarding the interpretation of “civil or commercial matters” (Art. 1) – “Receiving requests for service in Bulgaria of documents issued by customs and tax authorities of other Contracting States”. |
| Canada | Yes, regarding the interpretation of “civil or commercial matters” (Art. 1) – “Yes, one Central Authority received several requests related to proceedings in taxation matters. Oui, une autorité centrale a reçu plusieurs demandes relatives à des procédures en matière fiscale”. |
| China | No |
| Croatia | No |
| Czech Republic | Yes, regarding the interpretation of “civil or commercial matters” (Art. 1) – “Some requesting authorities try to include in the material scope of the Service Convention also administrative or financial proceedings”. |
| Estonia | Yes, other – “Sometimes there have been problems when the person’s address is not known. We have been advised to the HCCH 1970 request before”. |
| France | Oui, concernant l’interprétation de l’expression « matière civile ou commerciale » (art. 1) – “S’il est unanimement admis que cette expression exclut la matière pénale, la question du droit public est plus problématique. En pratique, sauf exceptions, une définition large est adoptée afin de faciliter les procédures de notification des actes à l’étranger. Ainsi la notification d’un acte judiciaire dans le cadre d’une procédure pendante devant une juridiction judiciaire relève de la matière civile et commerciale quand bien-même l’administration est partie au litige”. |
| Georgia | No |

|---------------------------------|--|
| Germany | Yes, regarding the interpretation of “civil or commercial matters” (Art. 1) – “Distinction between private and public law matters; outgoing requests for service of interlocutory orders pursuant to the Act on Protection against violence according to Section 210 of the Act on Proceedings in Family Matters and in Matters of Non-contentious Jurisdiction (FamFG); Service of documents where split-recovery statutes will apply; in these cases parts of the amount a plaintiff would receive will be deposited into a general state fund”. |
| Hong Kong SAR | No |
| Hungary | Yes, regarding the interpretation of “civil or commercial matters” (Art. 1) – “Requests sent by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission were questionable for us, as its activity is not considered of civil nature in Hungary, nevertheless the requests were accomplished in the end”. |
| India | Yes, other – “Sometimes foreign authorities dont mention complete address of both of the parties (petitioner / respondent). The translated version of the requests is also not provided many times due to which the same are returned”. |
| Ireland | No |
| Israel | Yes, regarding the interpretation of “civil or commercial matters” (Art. 1) – “Are personal status proceedings included within ‘civil and commercial matters’. Are administrative notices (such as fines, etc.) included”. |
| Japan | No |
| Kazakhstan | No |
| Latvia | Yes, other – “Use of language, for example, USA and UK in cases where the request is sent by our Country according to section c) of the Model form of the request, has been refused, although all rules were followed”. |
| Lithuania | No |
| Mexico | No |
| Nicaragua | No |
| Montenegro | No |
| Philippines | No |
| Poland | No |
| Portugal | No |
| Romania | Yes, regarding the interpretation of “civil or commercial matters” (Art. 1) – “[T]he exclusion of the administrative law”. Other – “[T]he exclusion of the administrative law; the exclusion of the acta de iuri imperii”. |
| Serbia | No |
| Slovenia | No |
| Slovakia | No |
| Sweden | Yes, regarding the interpretation of “civil or commercial matters” (Art. 1) – “The 1965 Service Convention is not applicable on administrative matters (article 1 in the Convention). It can sometimes be difficult to distinguish administrative matters from civil and commercial matters. Administrative courts and authorities make several efforts to apply for service in administrative matters and there applications have been rejected”. |
| United Kingdom | No |
| United States of America | No |
| Viet Nam | No |

| (6) Is the concept of “extrajudicial documents” (Art. 17) defined in the internal law of your State? | |
|--|--|
| Argentina | Yes |
| Australia | No |
| Austria | No |
| Brazil | Yes - “Article 726, of the CCP. The extrajudicial notification consists of a legal document that requires the payment of some debt, demanding the fulfillment of some non-compliance contract or cessation of an activity that is infringing the law”. |
| Bulgaria | No |
| Canada | No |
| China | No |
| Croatia | No |
| Czech Republic | No |
| Estonia | Yes - “Within the EU, the concept of ‘extrajudicial documents’ within the meaning of the Service of Documents Regulation has been interpreted by the Court of Justice of the European Union in its judgment of 11 November 2015 in case C-223/14 Tecom Mican and Arias Domínguez encompassing not only documents drawn up or certified by a public authority or official but also private documents of which the formal transmission to an addressee residing abroad is necessary for the purposes of exercising, proving or safeguarding a right or a claim in civil or commercial law. Furthermore, according to Recital 8 of the Service of Documents Recast Regulation the term ‘extrajudicial documents’ should be understood to include documents that have been drawn up or certified by a public authority or official, and other documents of which the formal transmission to an addressee residing in another Member State is necessary for the purposes of exercising, proving or safeguarding a right or a claim in civil or commercial law. The term ‘extrajudicial documents’ should not be understood to include documents issued by administrative authorities for the purposes of administrative proceedings”. |
| France | Non, il n’existe pas de définition codifiée. “Pour la doctrine et la jurisprudence, l’acte extrajudiciaire est un acte signifié par un officier ministériel et produisant des effets juridiques en dehors de toute procédure judiciaire”. |

III. Operation of the Convention

| (8) As the requested State, does your State provide assistance to locate a person to be served under the Service Convention? | |
|--|---|
| Argentina | No |
| Australia | Yes – “The lack of formal address registration in Australia makes it difficult for authorities to provide assistance to locate a person. Generally, requesting authorities are advised to consult publicly available registers, such as the Australian Electoral Commission (for natural persons), and the Australian Business Register or the registers of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Registers (for legal persons). Some jurisdictions are able to provide limited assistance, for example, where the addressee has moved, a bailiff or process server may make enquiries with the new resident or neighbours in relation to a forwarding address”. |
| Austria | Yes |
| Belgium | No |
| Brazil | Yes – “The Central Authority and other authorities have access to governmental databases to locate the persons to be served. The Superior Court of Justice also determines that water, electricity and telephone companies provide information. Judicial Officers call any phone number provided, try to fix incomplete addresses and talk to neighbours and other people that could help determining if the person lives in or around the provided address”. |
| Bulgaria | Yes – “The Court may consult with the National Database “Population”, the Commercial Register and Register of Non-profit Legal Entities”. |
| Canada | Yes – “Some, but not all, Central Authorities will attempt to serve documents at more than one address, conduct internet searches or consult available government records to attempt to locate a person to be served under the Convention. Oui - Certaines Autorités centrales, mais pas toutes, tenteront de signifier des documents à plusieurs adresses, effectueront des recherches sur Internet ou consulteront les registres gouvernementaux disponibles pour tenter de localiser une personne devant être signifiée ou notifiée en vertu de la Convention”. |

|-----------------------|--|
| China | Yes – “The court would try to locate the person to be served. It is therefore advisable that the requesting State provide contact information of the addressee whenever possible”. |
| Croatia | Yes – “Judges of the First instance Courts have possibility to use all tools prescribed by Croatian Civil procedure act. Under the provisions of mentioned Act obligation on determining or checking address by official duty is not prescribed, such obligation is prescribed in enforcement procedure that's process is initiated on authentic document”. |
| Czech Republic | Yes – “The Czech competent courts provide some kind of assistance to requesting authorities to locate a person (an addressee) to be served – we mean the correcting or clarifying an incorrect address. For this purpose the Czech requested authorities need to know the date of birth and the last known address of the person to be served in the Czech Republic. However, the Service Convention shall not be abused for address searching”. |
| Estonia | Yes – “Referring to EU reply”. |
| France | Non – “[L]a France ne disposant pas d'autorité compétente pour procéder à la recherche d'adresse ou de registre de population. Les requérants sont invités à consulter des sites d'information (Service public, pages blanches, Infogreffe)”. |
| Georgia | No |
| Germany | Yes – “In some cases assistance might be provided by getting information from the municipal registration office, or from a commercial register in cases the person to be served is a company”. |
| Hong Kong SAR | No |
| Hungary | No |
| India | No |
| Ireland | No |
| Israel | No |
| Japan | No |
| Kazakhstan | Yes – “If the person of whom the procedural actions should be performed does not located at the address indicated in the documents, then the court executing the order independently takes measures to establish his place of residence”. |
| Latvia | No |
| Lithuania | Yes – “To the extent possible and subject to functional capabilities, the Chamber of Judicial Officers may provide such assistance”. |
| Mexico | No |
| Montenegro | No |
| Nicaragua | Yes – “The designated notifier strives for the notification to be positive, seeking other addresses in the systems at our disposal”. |
| Philippines | Yes – “Limited assistance only. For instance, if the sheriff or the process server can identify the new location of the intended party, the former may locate the latter in its new address, and serve the documents”. |
| Poland | Yes – “[I]f the address is incorrect and there is an opportunity to identify a new address”. |
| Portugal | Yes – “If the request is to executed under our national law, there is a possibility to locate the address of the person to be served. Although, a specific request for that purpose is recommended, otherwise, there is a strong possibility that such a service is not provided. The access to some databases depends on a decision from the judge”. |
| Serbia | No |

|---------------------------------|--|
| Slovenia | Yes – “Courts have access to the population register and are authorised on their own initiative or if so requested by a requesting court to acquire information on addresses, when an address stated in a request for service is inaccurate or unknown”. |
| Slovakia | Yes – “We refer to the relevant part of the European Union reply. Furthermore, according to the information available to the Ministry of Justice of the Slovak Republic, the Slovak courts generally accept also requests when incomplete or incorrect address is listed, since Slovak courts are always taking steps to establish current address of addressee. On receipt of the request Slovak courts usually automatically check the current address of addressee in the Central Register of Inhabitants of the Slovak Republic, The Social Insurance Agency and in the register of prisoners. Further, according to the information available to the Ministry of Justice of the Slovak Republic, the Slovak courts also try to find the whereabouts of the addressee in cases when address in the request is not outdated (in situations when court tried to serve the documents to the address stated in the request, however service is not effective due to the fact that address of addressee has changed)”. |
| Sweden | Yes – “Firstly, there is a control whether the addressee can be identified in the National Population Register or not. Secondly, service will be proceeded at the registered address”. |
| United Kingdom | No |
| United States of America | Yes – “The U.S. Central Authority delegated the ministerial act of service on private individuals and companies pursuant to the Convention to ABC Legal Services, a process server. All incoming requests for service under the Convention for private individuals and companies are transmitted to and executed by ABC Legal Services. ABC Legal will attempt to resolve issues with incomplete or incorrect addresses by finding the closest possible match to the address provided in the request. If, in the course of attempts to serve, it is discovered that the subject or entity can no longer be found at the requested address, ABC Legal provides a complimentary investigation to locate the subject. ABC Legal’s investigation department can use a name, previous address, and/or date of birth to conduct a search to find a new or updated address. If a valid new address is identified, ABC Legal will confirm with the foreign applicant whether a new attempt at service should be made for an additional fee”. |
| Viet Nam | Yes – “The Central Authority and competent authorities of Viet Nam provide assistance to locate a person to be served under the Service Convention when several following conditions are fulfilled: First, the forwarding authority has to provide a relatively sufficient address of the addressee. Usually, a sufficient address contains the house number, street, ward, district, city/ province. [To some areas, the information of quarter or group (subdivision of ward) is necessary]. A relatively sufficient address may lack some parts but at least must contain basic information of ward, district, city/ province. Please note that some provinces cannot verify the address within the service process even though the basic information is provided. Second, the forwarding authority should provide other information of the addressee to avoid identical names. Regarding individual addressee, further information may include ID or passport number, date of birth, names of relatives/ family members. Regarding legal entity, further information may include the name of legal representatives, tax number, register number... The phone number of relevant person might help. Insufficient address (contains only the name of district or province) is not qualified for service process, however, foreign authorities can request for taking of evidence to verify the address”. |

| (9) As the requesting State, how would your State transmit a document for service upon another State, a State official, or a State-owned company? | |
|---|---|
| Argentina | The Service Convention would apply: (1) Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) (2) Indirect consular channel (Art. 9(1)) (3) Indirect diplomatic channel (Art. 9(2)) |
| Australia | Other – “In such a situation, diplomatic channels would likely be used, but the question of whether this use of diplomatic channels would be under the Hague Convention has not yet been considered”. |
| Austria | The Service Convention would not apply |
| Brazil | The Service Convention would not apply |
| Bulgaria | The Service Convention would apply: Through indirect diplomatic channel (Art. 9(2)) |
| Canada | Other – “The State would not necessarily be involved in transmitting the documents through the main channel, postal channels and direct communication between interested persons and judicial officers. Documents may be transmitted through any of the channels listed above if the rules of civil procedure applicable to the dispute allow the use of such channels. In some cases, requests sent through the main channel are rejected by the requested State and diplomatic channels are then used. L'État n'interviendrait pas nécessairement dans la transmission des actes par la voie principale, la voie postale et la communication directe entre les personnes intéressées et les huissiers de justice. Les documents peuvent être transmis par l'une des voies énumérées ci-dessus si les règles de procédure civile applicables au litige permettent l'utilisation de ces voies. Dans certains cas, les demandes adressées par la voie principale sont rejetées par l'État requis et la voie diplomatique est alors utilisée”. |
| China | The Service Convention would apply: (1) Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) (2) Postal channel (Art. 10(a)) |
| Croatia | The Service Convention would apply: (1) Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) (2) Direct diplomatic and consular channel (Art. 8) |
| Czech Republic | The Service Convention would apply: (1) Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) (2) Indirect diplomatic channel (Art. 9(2)) |
| Estonia | The Service Convention would not apply |
| France | La Convention Notification s'appliquerait par : (1) Voie principale de transmission (art. 5) (2) Voies diplomatique et consulaire directes (art. 8) |
| Georgia | The Service Convention would apply: (1) Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) (2) Postal channel (Art. 10(a)) |
| Germany | Other – “Whether the Service Convention applies can remain open from the German perspective. This is because Germany also considers requests for service on Contracting States, on State officials or in some cases State-owned companies under the Hague Service Convention to be exceptional cases under the Convention in which at least diplomatic transmission is required. Indeed, |

|----------------------|--|
| | Article 9(2) of the Hague Service Convention provides that documents may be transmitted through diplomatic channels for the purpose of service "if exceptional circumstances so require". In these cases it is for the defendant State to decide whether the request is handed to the Central Authority for execution or the respective Ministry of Foreign Affairs confirms acceptance of service by verbal note. German courts would use diplomatic channels for transmission and the request would be handed to the respective Ministry of Foreign Affairs by verbal note without using the model forms. The term "through the diplomatic channel" is interpreted by Germany as referring to transmissions of documents by the competent authorities of the forum State to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the defendant State through the forum State's diplomatic or consular mission in the defendant State. Germany does not accept service to its diplomatic or consular missions". |
| Hong Kong SAR | Other – "The forwarding authority of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China ("Hong Kong SAR, China") has not come across such a situation". |
| Hungary | The Service Convention would apply: (1) Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) (2) Direct diplomatic and consular channel (Art. 8) |
| India | The Service Convention would not apply |
| Ireland | The Service Convention would apply: Through Postal channel (Art. 10(a)) |
| Israel | Other – "Service upon States and State Officials (sued in their official capacity) - by diplomatic channels. Service upon State-owned companies - through the Service Convention". |
| Japan | The Service Convention would apply: Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5). |
| Kazakhstan | The Service Convention would apply: (1) Through the Main channel of transmission (2) Direct diplomatic and consular channel (Art. 9) (3) Direct communication between judicial officers (Art. 10(b)) |
| Latvia | The Service Convention would apply: (1) Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) (2) Direct diplomatic and consular channel (Art. 8) (3) Postal channel (Art. 10(a)) |
| Lithuania | The Service Convention would apply: (1) Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) (2) Indirect diplomatic channel (Art. 9(2)) |
| Mexico | The Service Convention would apply: Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) |
| Montenegro | The Service Convention would apply: Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) |
| Nicaragua | The Service Convention would apply: Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) |
| Norway | The Service Convention would apply: Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) |
| Philippines | Other – "The Service Convention may apply. Service upon another State, a State official, or State-owned company should observe the proper diplomatic channels. In addition, in situations where there is a Treaty entered into between the Philippines and another State, the same may be preferred". |
| Poland | The Service Convention would apply: Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) |

|---------------------------------|---|
| Portugal | Other – “Diplomatic channel”. |
| Romania | Other – “Via diplomatic channel”. |
| Serbia | The Service Convention would apply: (1) Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) (2) Direct diplomatic and consular channel (Art. 8) |
| Slovenia | The Service Convention would apply: (1) Through the Main channel of transmission (Art. 5) (2) Direct diplomatic and consular channel (Art. 8) (3) Indirect diplomatic channel (Art. 9(2)) (4) Postal channel (Art. 10(a)) |
| Slovakia | The Service Convention would not apply |
| Sweden | Other – “Unknown”. |
| United Kingdom | Other |
| United States of America | The Service Convention would apply: (1) Through the Main channel of transmissions (Art. 5) (2) Indirect diplomatic channel (Art. 9(2)) (3) Postal channel (Art. 10(a)) |
| Viet Nam | Other – “It depends. If there is no specific declaration of foreign country on their preferred channel, main channel of the Service Convention can be used in all circumstances. If foreign State is an addressee, indirect diplomatic channel may be used. Postal channel can also be exploited if available”. |

| (10) As the requested State, how is a request for service on your State, State official or State-owned company executed? | |
|--|---|
| Argentina | “The articles 5 or 9 of the Service Convention are applied”. |
| Australia | “Such a request would ordinarily be transmitted either via diplomatic channels or to the Central Authority, before being forwarded to the relevant Australian authority for execution”. |
| Austria | “Via the diplomatic way”. |
| Brazil | “Through the Ministry of Foreign Affairs”. |
| Bulgaria | “When we receive such documents through diplomatic channels we submit the documents for service to the competent Bulgarian authorities on Art. 6”. |
| Canada | “For requests under Article 5 of the Convention, service would be executed as prescribed by that Article. Pour les demandes relevant de l'article 5 de la Convention, la signification ou la notification s'effectuera selon les modalités prévues par cet article”. |
| China | By state officials. “For requests for service made through the Hague Convention on Service, Chinese courts review them in accordance with the Convention and domestic law. If the request falls within the circumstances specified in Article 13 of the Convention, we refuse to assist in service”. |
| Croatia | “Through the provisions of the Convention”. |
| Czech Republic | “The requests for service on the Czech State, State official or State-owned company are executed according to the Service Convention as the standard requests addressed to any private subject”. |
| Estonia | “We will forward the request to the court. Court will try to service documents accordingly to Estonian Code of Civil Procedure”. |
| France | “Voie principale de transmission (art. 5)”. |

| Georgia | “The Central Authority – The Ministry of justice forwards the incoming requests for service to the competent court of first instance, which executes such requests in accordance with Chapter VIII of the Civil Procedure Code of Georgia (see: https://matsne.gov.ge/en/document/view/29962?publication=134)”. |
| Germany | “A request is executed via diplomatic channels”. |
| Hong Kong SAR | “Hong Kong SAR, China has not received such request”. |
| Hungary | “Under the general rules of service of documents”. |
| India | By post |
| Ireland | Postal channel |
| Israel | “Documents addressed to the State of Israel, including its political subdivisions, agencies, authorities and instrumentalities, and to officials, or agents acting or who acted on behalf of the Government of Israel - service shall be effected, subject to the provisions of the Convention, through the Central Authority”. |
| Japan | “Main channel of transmission”. |
| Kazakhstan | “The requests come from the Ministry of External affairs to the Judicial Administration and also comes directly from the central organs of other countries”. |
| Latvia | “III. Document Delivery Procedures 7. For a legal entity, the document shall be delivered to its registered address. The document shall be serviced to the official or an employee of the legal entity. 8. For a natural person, the document shall be delivered to the address indicated by the submitter in the submission. 9. The document to be delivered to a natural person shall be serviced to the addressee personally. If the addressee cannot be met at the indicated address at the moment of the delivery of the document, the document shall be handed over to a family member or kinsman met at the respective address who has attained the legal age and residing together with the addressee (if the delivery of the document has been made to the address of the residence of the addressee) or to the administration of the workplace (if the delivery of the document has been made to the address of the workplace of the addressee) for servicing it to the addressee. The aforementioned person shall have the duty to service the document to the addressee. The warning to a debtor regarding voluntary sale at auction of immovable property through the court or undisputed enforcement of obligations or a court warning on enforcement of payment obligations envisaged in the Civil Procedure Law shall be serviced only to the addressee personally. 10. If in the process of the delivery of the document a sworn bailiff receives information that the addressee might be met in another address, a sworn bailiff shall inform the submitter about it by using the available means of communications (for example, telephone, electronic mail), and deliver the document to the respective address. 11. The addressee or the person indicated in paragraph 9 herein to whom the document has been handed over for servicing it to the addressee shall confirm the receipt of the document by putting the signature on a copy of the document. As from this moment, the document shall be considered as delivered. 12. If the addressee refuses to accept the document, a sworn bailiff shall inform the addressee about the type of the document and shall explain the consequences of the refusal that come into effect in accordance with paragraph 3 of these Regulations. As from this moment, the document shall be considered as delivered. 13. If the addressee cannot be met at the address indicated in the submission of the submitter and the document cannot be handed over to any of persons indicated in paragraphs 7 or 9 herein, a sworn bailiff shall leave a notice in a closed envelope in the post box of the addressee regarding the attempt to hand over the document to this person and invite the addressee to appear at the office of the sworn bailiff within seven days’ time to receive the |

Should the circumstances warrants, the service may be executed through the Service Convention or request for judicial assistance (letters rogatory)”. |
| Poland | “By the courts”. |
| Portugal | “First, it should be highlighted that State jurisdictional immunity is subject to public international rules, which therefore affect if and how States are served. Portugal has signed the 1972 European Convention on State Immunity and has ratified the 2004 UN Convention on Jurisdictional Immunities of States and Their Property (the latter is not yet into force). Notwithstanding, Portuguese legal scholars and case-law consider that these circumstances should not be a reason to consider their content as irrelevant on the field of State immunity having regard that international custom is a formal source of law (article 8 (1) of the Portuguese Constitution and article 38 (1) of the Statute of the International Court of Justice). Consequently, a special consideration on the service of documents rules set forward on those conventions should be envisaged”. |
| Romania | “Via diplomatic channel”. |
| Serbia | “The request is executed through the competent court”. |
| Slovenia | “In accordance with methods prescribed by our internal law (usually district courts serve documents as the Civil Procedure Code prescribes that they are competent for mutual legal assistance, if a process should be served to a person enjoying immunity, the service shall be effected through diplomatic channels, unless otherwise provided by an international agreement or the Civil Procedure Code of Slovenia)”. |
| Slovakia | “Through diplomatic channels”. |
| Sweden | “The documents will be served with The Cancellor of Justice by postal channel”. |
| United Kingdom | “The Civil Procedure Rules for England and Wales provides the addresses to be used for service in any proceedings against the Crown, which includes Government Departments. The method of service is the same as those permitted for service on other persons or entities”. |

| United States of America | “Requests for service on the United States Government, which includes its officials (when named in an official capacity), departments, agencies, or instrumentalities, can be transmitted to the U.S. Central Authority under Article 5 of the Hague Service Convention or through diplomatic channels under customary international law. If the request for service complies with the requirements of the Hague Service Convention (if serving pursuant to the Convention) and customary international law requirements, service is executed by serving the appropriate United States Government office. While the United States does not object to Article 10 service by postal channels for private individuals or companies, service on the United States Government cannot be effected through Article 10. For more information, please see: https://www.justice.gov/civil/service-requests”. |
| Viet Nam | “It depends. Requests for service of documents to the State or the Government of Viet Nam should be sent via diplomatic channel. Other requests to serve on State official or State-owned company can still be sent via main channels or other available alternative channels in Viet Nam. If the documents are served through competent authorities of Viet Nam (via main channel or diplomatic channels), the Vietnamese competent authority will use personal service or send the documents via mail. Please note that each request will be considered on a case by case basis”. |

| (33) In your State’s opinion, what further work could the PB do on the use of information technology under the Service Convention? | |
|--|---|
| Argentina | Development of a Guide to Good Practice |
| Australia | Other – “Australia agrees that additional guidance and information about the practical experience of Contracting Parties in this area would be useful, however in our view, this information would better be incorporated into the new edition of the Handbook than a standalone a Guide to Good Practice”. |
| Austria | Other – “Making electronic systems compatible” |
| Brazil | Other - “Stimulate all the countries to use electronic transmission, preferably by regular e-mail, as other initiatives that involve developing systems tend to take too long to develop and some are closed down shortly after they start being used and some don't even get to be used at all. If the development of a system becomes unavoidable, the same interface should be used for requests under all HCCH Conventions. Multiple systems should be avoided, but they may be acceptable if there is only one interface. Stimulate information exchange and confidence building among Members for the acceptance of electronic signatures. An idea would be to have an area on the website to disseminate information about each countries' valid electronic signatures”. |
| Bulgaria | Development of a Guide to Good Practice |
