1.3 Please provide a brief summary of any other significant developments in your State since the 2011 / 2012 Special Commission relating to international child abduction.

In 2008, by an amendment of the Criminal Code, Law 70(I)/2008, the removal of a child outside the borders of the Republic of Cyprus without the prior consent of the other lawful guardian, was penalized (new Article 245A). Based on Article 248, the penalty of this action is up to 7 years of imprisonment and a fine.

In 2015, in view of the fact that there was an increase of cases where a consent of a parent is given for the child's travel with the other parent for the purpose of a short stay abroad, but the other parent retains the child abroad and there is no intention to return, another amendment of the Criminal Code was passed, Law 112(I)/2015, whereby the unlawful retention of a minor outside the Republic of Cyprus is also punished with imprisonment of up to 7 years.

However, if there are important matters which you consider should be raised from prior to the 2011 / 2012 Special Commission, please provide such information here.

³ The term "relevant authorities" is used in this Questionnaire to refer to the judicial or administrative authorities with decision-making responsibility under the 1980 Convention. Whilst in the majority of States Parties such "authorities" will be courts (i.e., judicial), in some States Parties administrative authorities remain responsible for decision-making in Convention cases.
