

HCCH Principles: Arbitration Institutions Status

The following table presents a non-exhaustive list of arbitral institutions that either have incorporated the HCCH Principles into their own institutional rules or are advertising or facilitating their use in other ways. The Table is based on information provided by the institutions and is updated on a yearly basis.

Last update: 4-VI-2021

State	Arbitration Institution	The arbitration rules are consistent with the HCCH Principles	The arbitration rules allow parties to select the applicable law ¹	Tribunals constituted under these arbitration rules respect the law chosen by the parties	Parties are free to select a non-State law under these arbitration rules ²	Tribunals constituted under these arbitration rules respect the parties' choice of a non-State law ³	The institution would hesitate to administer proceedings that include a choice-of-law clause referring to the HCCH Principles ⁴	Tribunals constituted under these rules, determining the applicable law, have made reference to the HCCH Principles
Austria	Vienna International Arbitration Centre (VIAC)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
Belgium	Belgian Centre for Arbitration and Mediation (CEPANI)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
China	Shenzhen Court of International Arbitration (SCIA)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Yes

¹ See Art. 2 of the HCCH Principles.

² See Art. 3 of the HCCH Principles.

³ See Art. 3 of the HCCH Principles.

⁴ For example, as an aide to interpretation.

State	Arbitration Institution	The arbitration rules are consistent with the HCCH Principles	The arbitration rules allow parties to select the applicable law ¹	Tribunals constituted under these arbitration rules respect the law chosen by the parties	Parties are free to select a non-State law under these arbitration rules ²	Tribunals constituted under these arbitration rules respect the parties' choice of a non-State law ³	The institution would hesitate to administer proceedings that include a choice-of-law clause referring to the HCCH Principles ⁴	Tribunals constituted under these rules, determining the applicable law, have made reference to the HCCH Principles
Colombia	Centre of Conciliation, Arbitration and Amicable Composition of the Chamber of Commerce of Medellín	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
Egypt	Cairo Regional Centre for International Commercial Arbitration (CRCICA)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
Finland	The Finland Arbitration Institute (FAI)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
Germany	German Arbitration Institute (DIS)	—	Yes	Yes	Yes	—	No	No

State	Arbitration Institution	The arbitration rules are consistent with the HCCH Principles	The arbitration rules allow parties to select the applicable law ¹	Tribunals constituted under these arbitration rules respect the law chosen by the parties	Parties are free to select a non-State law under these arbitration rules ²	Tribunals constituted under these arbitration rules respect the parties' choice of a non-State law ³	The institution would hesitate to administer proceedings that include a choice-of-law clause referring to the HCCH Principles ⁴	Tribunals constituted under these rules, determining the applicable law, have made reference to the HCCH Principles
India	Council for National and International Commercial Arbitration (CNICA)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
Mexico	Cámara Nacional de Comercio de la Ciudad de México (CANACO)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
Mexico	Centro de Arbitraje de México (CAM)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
Netherlands	Netherlands Arbitration Institute (NAI)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
South Korea	KCAB International	No	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
Spain	Madrid Court of Arbitration	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
Switzerland	Swiss Chambers' Arbitration Institution (SCAI)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Yes

State	Arbitration Institution	The arbitration rules are consistent with the HCCH Principles	The arbitration rules allow parties to select the applicable law ¹	Tribunals constituted under these arbitration rules respect the law chosen by the parties	Parties are free to select a non-State law under these arbitration rules ²	Tribunals constituted under these arbitration rules respect the parties' choice of a non-State law ³	The institution would hesitate to administer proceedings that include a choice-of-law clause referring to the HCCH Principles ⁴	Tribunals constituted under these rules, determining the applicable law, have made reference to the HCCH Principles
-------	-------------------------	---	---	---	---	---	--	---

Thailand	Thailand Arbitration Center (THAC)	No	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No	Yes
Uzbekistan	Tashkent International Arbitration Centre	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No

Arbitration institutions wishing to provide relevant information for this table are invited to contact the Permanent Bureau of the HCCH at <secretariat@hcch.net>.