

Status Table: Arbitration Centres and the HCCH Principles

The following table presents a non-exhaustive list of arbitration centres that either have incorporated the Principles into their own institutional rules or are advertising or facilitating their use in other ways compatible with the HCCH Principles on Choice of Law. The list is geared towards providing information about arbitral institutions and rules that respect and interpret a contractually chosen law in accordance with the HCCH Principles.

Last update: 01-X-2020

State	Arbitration Centre	The arbitration rules are consistent with the HCCH Principles	The arbitration rules allow parties to select the applicable law ¹	Tribunals constituted under these arbitration rules respect the law chosen by the parties	Parties are free to select a non-State law under these arbitration rules ²	Tribunals constituted under these arbitration rules respect the parties' choice of a non-State law ³	The institution would hesitate to administer proceedings that include a choice-of-law clause referring to the HCCH Principles ⁴	Tribunals constituted under these rules, determining the applicable law, have made reference to the HCCH Principles
Egypt	Cairo Regional Centre for International Commercial Arbitration (CRCICA)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes.	Yes	No	No
Finland	The Finland Arbitration Institute (FAI)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No

¹ See Art 2 of the HCCH Principles.

² See Art 3 of the HCCH Principles.

³ See Art 3 of the HCCH Principles.

⁴ For example, as an aide to interpretation.

State	Arbitration Centre	The arbitration rules are consistent with the HCCH Principles	The arbitration rules allow parties to select the applicable law ¹	Tribunals constituted under these arbitration rules respect the law chosen by the parties	Parties are free to select a non-State law under these arbitration rules ²	Tribunals constituted under these arbitration rules respect the parties' choice of a non-State law ³	The institution would hesitate to administer proceedings that include a choice-of-law clause referring to the HCCH Principles ⁴	Tribunals constituted under these rules, determining the applicable law, have made reference to the HCCH Principles
Germany	German Arbitration Institute (DIS)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
India	Council for National and International Commercial Arbitration (CNICA)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
Mexico	Centro de Arbitraje de México (CAM)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
Spain	Madrid Court of Arbitration	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No
Switzerland	Swiss Chambers' Arbitration Institution (SCAI)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Yes
Thailand	Thailand Arbitration Center (THAC)	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No

Arbitration centres wishing to provide relevant information for this table are invited to contact the Permanent Bureau of the HCCH at <secretariat@hcch.net>.