<sup>7</sup> See paras 1.1.16 to 1.1.21 of the Conclusions and Recommendations of the 2006 Special Commission (supra. note 5).

The procedure for the return of child kept by the court and the Central Authority can not affect the work of the court

4. Court proceedings & promptness

4.1 Has your State limited the number of judicial or administrative authorities who can hear return applications under the 1980 Convention (i.e., concentration of jurisdiction)?<sup>8</sup>

Yes

No, please indicate if such arrangements are being contemplated:

In proceedings for the return of child are in charge all basic courts in Montenegro

4.2 Does your State have mechanisms in place to handle return decisions within six weeks (e.g., production of summary evidence, limitation of appeals, swift enforcement)?

No

Yes, please explain:

Please insert text here

4.3 If your response to the previous question is No, does your State contemplate implementing mechanisms to meet the requirement of prompt return under the 1980 Convention (e.g., procedures, bench-books, guidelines, protocols)?

No, please explain:

Article 9 of the Constitution of Montenegro provides that the ratified and published international agreements and generally accepted rules of international law shall make an integral part of the internal legal order, shall have the supremacy over the national legislation and shall apply directly when they regulate relations differently than the national legislation. Having regard to this the Convention applies directly.

Yes, please explain:

Please insert text here

4.4 If your State is experiencing delays in handling return decisions please specify the main reasons for these delays:

As in other countries, court proceedings are collateral and need time for their execution.

4.5 Do your courts regularly order immediate protective measures when initiating the return procedure, so as to prevent a new removal and minimize the harm to the child (e.g., prohibit removal of the child from the jurisdiction, retain documentation, grant provisional access rights to the left-behind parent)?

No, please explain:

<sup>8</sup> See, The Judges' Newsletter on International Child Protection – Vol. XX / Summer-Autumn 2013 the special focus of which was "Concentration of jurisdiction under the Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the civil aspects of International Child Abduction and other international child protection instruments".

4.8 Please comment upon any cases (whether your State was the requesting or requested State), in which the judge (or decision-maker) has, before determining an application for return, communicated with a judge or other authority in the requesting State regarding the issue of the child's safe return. What was the specific purpose of the communication? What was the outcome?

We don't have information about such cases.

5. Ensuring the safe return of children<sup>9</sup>

Methods for ensuring the safe return of children<sup>10</sup>

5.1 What measures has your Central Authority taken to ensure that the recommendations of the 2006 and 2011 / 2012 Special Commission meetings<sup>11</sup> regarding the safe return of children are implemented?

There were no activities in this field, so far.

5.2 In particular, in a case where the safety of a child is in issue and where a return order has been made in your State, how does your Central Authority ensure that the appropriate child protection bodies in the requesting State are alerted so that they may act to protect the welfare of a child upon return (until the appropriate court in the requesting State has been effectively seised)?

Court cooperates with the Center for Social Work until the arrival of the other parent (the applicant to return the child)

5.3 Where there are concerns in the requested State regarding possible risks for a child following a return, what conditions or requirements can the relevant authority in your State put in place to minimise or eliminate those concerns?

In such cases, the relevant authority shall include the Center for Social Work

Use of the 1996 Convention to ensure a safe return

5.4 If your State is not Party to the 1996 Convention, is consideration being given to the possible advantages of the 1996 Convention in providing a jurisdictional basis for urgent protective measures associated with return orders (Arts 7 and 11), in providing for their recognition by operation of law (Art. 23), and in communicating information relevant to the protection of the child (Art. 34)?

No

Yes, please explain:

NOTE: The Convention is under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of Labor and Social Welfare

Protection of primary carer

5.5 Are you aware of cases in your State where a primary carer taking parent, for reasons of personal security (e.g., domestic or family violence, intimidation, harassment, etc.) or others, has refused or has not been in a position to return with the child to the requesting State? How are such cases dealt with in your State? Please explain and provide case examples where possible.

In practice there were no such cases so far.

<sup>10</sup> Where relevant, please make reference to the use of undertakings, mirror orders and safe harbour orders and other such measures in your State.

<sup>11</sup> See the Conclusions and Recommendations of the Special Commission of 2006 (supra. note 5) at paras 1.1.12 and 1.8.1 to 1.8.2 and 1.8.4 to 1.8.5 and the Appendix to the Conclusions and Recommendations and the Conclusions and Recommendations of the 2011 / 2012 Special Commission (supra. note 5).at paras 39-43.

5.6 In particular, would your authorities consider putting in place measures to protect the primary carer upon return in the requesting State as a mean to secure the safe return of the child? Please explain and provide case examples where possible.

See under 5.5

Post-return information

5.7 In cases where measures are put in place in your State to ensure the safety of a child upon return, does your State (through the Central Authority, or otherwise) attempt to monitor the effectiveness of those measures upon the child's return? Would you support a recommendation that States Parties should co-operate to provide each other with follow-up information on such matters, insofar as is possible?

Yes, we would support a recommendation that States Parties should co-operate to provide each other with follow -up information on such matters, insofar as is possible.

5.8 If your State is not Party to the 1996 Convention, is consideration being given to the possible advantages of the 1996 Convention in providing a jurisdictional basis for requesting a report on the situation of the child upon return to the State of habitual residence (Art. 32-(a))?

- No
 Yes, please explain:

NOTE: The Convention is under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of Labor and Social Welfare

6. Voluntary agreements and mediation

6.1 How does your Central Authority (either directly or through any intermediary) take, or is it considering taking, appropriate steps under Article 7-(c) to secure the voluntary return of the child or to bring about an amicable resolution of the issues? Please explain:

This is the jurisdiction of the court

6.2 In what ways have you used the "Guide to Good Practice on Mediation"<sup>12</sup> for the purpose of implementing the 1980 Convention in your State? Please explain:

Mediation in the process of returning the child conducted by the court

6.3 Has your State considered or is it in the process of considering the establishment of a Central Contact Point for international family mediation to facilitate access to information on available mediation services and related issues for cross-border family disputes involving children, or has this task been entrusted to the Central Authority?<sup>13</sup>

- No, please explain:

Our opinion is that is worth considering the the option to establish a Central Contact Point for international family mediation.

- Yes, please explain:

Please insert text here

7. Preventive measures

7.1 Has your State taken steps to advance the development of a travel form under the auspices of the International Civil Aviation Organisation?<sup>14</sup>

- No

<sup>12</sup> Available on the Hague Conference website at < www.hcch.net > under "Child Abduction Section" then "Guides to Good Practice".

<sup>13</sup> As it has been encouraged in the Guide to Good Practice on Mediation, Chapter 4, on "Access to Mediation". par. 114-117. See also Conclusions and Recommendations of the 2011 / 2012 Special Commission (supra. note 5) at par. 61.

<sup>14</sup> See the Conclusions and Recommendations of the 2011 / 2012 Special Commission (supra. note 5) at par. 92.

- Yes, please describe:
Please insert text here

7.2 Regardless of whether the International Civil Aviation Organisation adds the development of a travel form to its work programme, would your State support the development of a non-mandatory model travel form under the auspices of the Hague Conference?

- Yes
 No, please explain:
Please insert text here

8. The Guide to Good Practice under the 1980 Convention

8.1 In what ways have you used the Parts of the Guide to Good Practice<sup>15</sup> to assist in implementing for the first time, or improving the practical operation of, the 1980 Convention in your State?

- a. Part I on Central Authority Practice. Please explain:
The Guide to Good Practice provided us with significant support in the implementation of the 1980 Convention.
- b. Part II on Implementing Measures. Please explain:
The Guide to Good Practice provided us with significant support in the implementation of the 1980 Convention.
- c. Part III on Preventive Measures. Please explain:
