¹⁹ The "Malta Process" is a dialogue between certain States Parties to the 1980 and 1996 Conventions and certain States which are not Parties to either Convention, with a view to securing better protection for cross-border rights of contact of parents and their children and addressing the problems posed by international abduction between the States concerned. For further information see the Hague Conference website at < www.hcch.net > under "Child Abduction Section" then "Judicial Seminars on the International Protection of Children".

²⁰ The Principles and Explanatory Memorandum were circulated to all Hague Conference Member States and all States participating in the Malta Process in November 2010. They are available on the Hague Conference website at < www.hcch.net > under "Child Abduction Section" then "Judicial Seminars on the International Protection of Children".

In general

14.1 Please comment or state your reflections on the specific tools, services and support provided by the Permanent Bureau to assist with the practical operation of the 1980 and 1996 Conventions, including:

- a. The Country Profile available under the Child Abduction Section.

The Country Profiles provide useful insight into the practical operation of the Convention in each contracting State. It is a significantly helpful tool for acquiring information and guidance on the particularities of proceedings in each State.

- b. INCADAT (the international child abduction database, available at < www.incadat.com >).

Whilst a useful tool in general, INCADAT could be further evolved with the addition of a higher number of decisions.

- c. The Judges' Newsletter on International Child Protection - the publication of the Hague Conference on Private International Law which is available online for free;²¹
Please insert text here

- d. The specialised "Child Abduction Section" of the Hague Conference website (< www.hcch.net >);
Please insert text here

- e. INCASTAT (the database for the electronic collection and analysis of statistics on the 1980 Convention);²²

In 2015, an application under article 8 of the Convention was submitted to our Central Authority by a left behind parent. The children's habitual residence was State "A" and the State where the children had been removed was State "B". None of the above States was Greece. The applicant - of Greek nationality - made use of the option provided in article 8 of the Convention to apply to the Central Authority of any other Contracting State. A rare case perhaps but there is no obvious at least way to input this information into INCASTAT.

Also, in the field "age of the child objecting to the return", the total number of characters that can be inserted in the relevant box is two, therefore, when there are more than one child objecting to the return, inputting the information is not possible. (i.e. when there are three siblings of age 8,11,13 it can be noted only one of them)

- f. Providing technical assistance and training to States Parties regarding the practical operation of the 1980 and 1996 Conventions.²³ Such technical assistance and training may involve persons visiting the Permanent Bureau or, alternatively, may involve the Permanent Bureau organising, or providing assistance with organising, national and international judicial and other seminars and conferences concerning the Convention(s) and participating in such conferences;

Please insert text here

- g. Encouraging wider ratification of, or accession to, the Convention(s), including educating those unfamiliar with the Convention(s);²⁴

Please insert text here

- h. Supporting communications between Central Authorities, including maintaining their contact details updated on the HCCH website;

Please insert text here

²¹ Available on the Hague Conference website at < www.hcch.net > under "Child Abduction Section" and "Judges' Newsletter on International Child Protection". For some volumes of The Judges' Newsletter, it is possible to download individual articles as required.

²² Further information is available via the Hague Conference website at < www.hcch.net > under "Child Abduction Section" then "INCASTAT".

²³ Such technical assistance may be provided to judges, Central Authority personnel and / or other professionals involved with the practical operation of the Convention(s).

²⁴ Which again may involve State delegates and others visiting the Permanent Bureau or, alternatively, may involve the Permanent Bureau organising, or providing assistance with organising, national and international judicial and other seminars and conferences concerning the Convention(s) and participating in such conferences.

- i. Supporting communications among Hague Network Judges and between Hague Network Judges and Central Authorities, including maintaining a confidential database of up-to-date contact details of Hague Network Judges

- a. To improve the monitoring of the operation of the Conventions;
Please insert text here
- b. To assist States in meeting their Convention obligations; and
Please insert text here
- c. To evaluate whether serious violations of Convention obligations have occurred?
