2000 Protection of Adults Convention Country Profile

Foreword to the Country Profile

Contracting Parties are encouraged to use this Country Profile to assist with the fulfilment of their obligations under the HCCH Convention of 13 January 2000 on the International Protection of Adults (hereinafter, the 2000 Convention). In particular, it is anticipated that the Country Profile will help Contracting Parties fulfil their obligations under Article 29 of the 2000 Convention, that is:

- (1) Central Authorities shall co-operate with each other and promote co-operation amongst the competent authorities in their States to achieve the purposes of the Convention.
- (2) They shall, in connection with the application of the Convention, take appropriate steps to provide information as to the laws of, and services available in, their States relating to the protection of adults.

The Country Profile is a standardised document that will be available to Contracting Parties to complete, view, and update electronically. Its objective is to assist with the practical operation of the 2000 Convention. It is hoped that it will facilitate:

- a) information exchanges between Contracting Parties;
- b) timely compliance with the obligations under the 2000 Convention with minimum administrative effort;
- c) efficient and effective resolution of cases by well-informed competent authorities;
- d) knowledgeable service by Central and other authorities;
- e) cost-effective translation of the information provided by Contracting Parties into English and French; and
- f) prompt updates of the information provided.

This Country Profile is based on the final text of the 2000 Convention, as agreed at the Special Commission of a diplomatic character of September-October 1999.

This draft Country Profile is divided into thirteen Sections that follow, to the extent possible, the order of the Chapters in the text of the 2000 Convention. The aim of each section is as follows.¹

- Section I Designated Central and other authorities: This section aims to provide all the relevant information that will enable you to contact the relevant Central and other authorities designated by this Contracting Party. Central Authorities are designated to discharge the duties imposed by the Convention (Art. 28). They play an important role in facilitating communication and cooperation between competent authorities in different Contracting Parties, as well as in transmitting information and requests to other Central Authorities. In this section you can also find information relating to the authorities designated under Articles 38 and 42 of the Convention.
- Section II Coming into force and territorial application of the 2000 Convention: This section presents information about when the Convention entered into force in the given State, and its territorial application.

If practically possible to implement and subject to available resources, the Permanent Bureau suggests the edition of a mouse over information icon "(i)" that will display such explanations in the electronic version of the Country Profile. This suggestion intends to make the Country Profile more user-friendly and accessible.

- Section III Relevant legislation: This section provides information about the legislation in the given State.
- Section IV Scope: ratione materiae (measures available to competent authorities): This section presents an overview of the domestic law applicable to the different measures for the protection of the adult that fall within the scope of the 2000 Convention. As such, this section provides information on what measures of protection are available in the given State and how the domestic legislation of this State governs the different measures.
- Section V Jurisdiction (Arts 5-12): This section provides information about jurisdiction matters.
- Section VI Recognition and Enforcement (Arts 22-27): This section provides information on the rules applicable in a given State that relate to the recognition and enforcement of decisions under the 2000 Convention.
- Section VII Applicable law (Arts 13 21 and 45 47): The 2000 Convention provides, as a general rule, that authorities of Contracting Parties shall apply their own law (Art. 13). In addition, the Convention also allows Contracting Parties to exceptionally apply the law of another State. This section presents an overview of the law(s) applicable in a given State in relation to the Convention. This section also includes information on the mandatory laws in a given State (Art 20) as well as information on the law applicable to powers of representation (Art 15). Questions relating to multi-unit States and States that have two or more systems of law or sets of rules are also addressed in this section.
- Section VIII Other matters pertaining to the protection of adults: This section provides information on other matters pertaining to the protection of adults which fall within the scope of the 2000 Convention, such as ex lege representation and voluntary anticipatory acts containing instructions given and wishes made by an adult in anticipation of a future impairment (e.g., advance directives).
- Section IX Cooperation (Arts 28-37): This section provides information on practical issues and questions that may arise when dealing with matters falling within the scope of the 2000 Convention in a given State: how Central and other authorities gather and transmit information, how Central and other authorities assist with locating an adult, where it appears they may be in need of protection, how Central and other authorities assist in the placement of an adult in an establishment, or other place where protection can be provided, located in another Contracting Party. This section also provides information on direct judicial communications, including through the assistance of Central Authorities (Arts 30, 32, 33 and 34).
- Section X General: This section provides information about international certificates under Article 38, training and other general information.
- Section XI Electronic resources

Contracting Parties are to prepare their Country Profiles with a view to providing clear information regarding their domestic laws and processes to other Contracting Parties. Where multiple answers to the questions are appropriate, respondents are encouraged to check all the tick boxes that apply. Contracting Parties comprised of more than one territorial unit may choose to submit separate Country Profiles for each territorial unit. Respondents are encouraged to provide links to relevant domestic legislation and procedural rules, where possible and applicable.

conflict rule in the Convention. While there is no provision in the Convention that deals with ex lege representation per se, such representation falls under the scope and object of the Convention by virtue of Article 1 when it is aimed at the protection of adults who, by reason of an impairment or insufficiency of their personal faculties, are not in a position to protect their interests (Art. 1(1)). Thus, ex lege representation may be the subject of cooperation between the authorities of Contracting Parties (Art. 1(2)(e) and Chapter V).
