PART I – PRACTICAL OPERATION OF THE 1980 CONVENTION

Recent developments in your State²

1. Since the 2017 SC, have there been any significant developments in your State regarding the legislation or procedural rules applicable in cases of international child abduction? Where possible, please state the reason for the development and the results achieved in practice.

- No
 Yes

Please specify:

In 2022, the Central Authority of the Macao SAR elaborated a process guidance for international child abduction cases regarding access applications, based on the Guide to Good Practice under the 1980 Convention. It is worth recalling that in 2015 a process guidance for international child abduction cases regarding child return applications was established based on the said Guide.

2. Following the Covid-19 pandemic,³ have there been any improvements that have remained in your State in the following areas, in particular in relation to the use of information technology, as a result of newly adopted procedures or practices applicable to child abduction cases? In each case, please describe the tools, guidelines or protocols put in place.

- a) Methods for accepting and processing return and access applications and their accompanying documentation;

The Central Authority of the Macao SAR generally accepts applications and accompanying documentation transmitted by electronic means, but submission in paper version is recommended for authenticity verification. As for the courts in the Macao SAR, according to Law 5/2022 on Electronic Submission of Litigation Documents and Payments, litigating parties and their legal representatives who meet legal requirements and regulations may choose to submit documents and pay litigation fees by electronic means.

² This Part of the Questionnaire is intended to deal primarily with the developments in law and practice relating to international child abduction which have occurred in your State since the Seventh Meeting of the Special Commission (SC) to review the operation of the 1980 Abduction Convention and the 1996 Child Protection Convention (held from 10 to 17 October 2017) ("2017 SC").

³ This question aims to gather information about good practices that were developed in those exceptional circumstances and that will continue to be applied regardless of the pandemic.

Law 5/2022 on Electronic Submission of Litigation Documents and Payments is available in Chinese and Portuguese respectively on https://bo.io.gov.mo/bo/i/2022/25/lei05_cn.asp and <https://bo.io.gov.mo/bo/i/2022/25/lei05.asp#5>.

- b) Participation of the parties and the child (e.g., appearance in court proceedings, mediation);
There have been no changes.
 - c) Promoting mediation and other forms of amicable resolution;
Currently, there is no mediation regime specified for cases of international child abduction. Therefore, the Central Authority of the Macao SAR provides assistance and services related to family matters, based on the Guide to Good Practice under the 1980 Convention.
 - d) Making arrangements for organising or securing the effective exercise of rights of access, including while pending return proceedings;
There have been no changes.
 - e) Obtaining evidence by electronic means;
There have been no changes.
 - f) Ensuring the safe return of the child;
There have been no changes.
 - g) Cooperation between Central Authorities and other authorities;
There have been no changes.
 - h) Providing information and guidance for parties involved in child abduction cases;
There have been no changes.
 - i) Other, please specify.

3. Please provide the three most significant decisions concerning the interpretation and application of the 1980 Convention rendered since the 2017 SC by the relevant authorities⁴ in your State.

Case Name	Court Name	Court Level	Brief summary of the ruling
Case regarding the exercise of parental authority (No. FM1-17-0064-MPS)	The Family and Minors Court in the Court of First Instance	Court of First Instance	During the judicial proceeding, the Court was notified that the father in the case had filed a child return proceeding in Portugal. Therefore, the Court decided to suspend the proceeding in accordance with Article 16 of the 1980 Convention and the agreement between the two parties in dispute. In 2017, the Central Authority of the Macao SAR determined that the child concerned was not to be returned on the grounds that the mother in the case had been taking care of her son and that she possessed authorisation documents to take her son out of the region.

Case regarding changes in the exercise of parental authority (No. FM1-17-0141-MPS)	The Family and Minors Court in the Court of First Instance	Court of first Instance	The mother in the case did not return to the Macao SAR after taking the minor to Russia. Having considered that the parental authority of the minor was temporarily handed over to the mother at the time, the Court held that the circumstance did not constitute a wrongful removal of a child under Article 3 of the 1980 Convention. The Court finally ruled the change of parental authority, which should be exercised by the father in the case individually. After the verdict was final, the father filed a child return application to the Court. The Court stated that since it was not the Central Authority of the Macao SAR under the 1980 Convention and had no authority to handle the application, the father should apply to the Social Welfare Bureau in accordance with Article 8 of the Convention. In 2018, the Social Welfare Bureau received the father's application for the child return and transmitted such request to the Central Authority of Russia. However, the Central Authority of Russia replied to the Social Welfare Bureau that it was unable to locate or contact the child.

Court proceedings and promptness

8. Does your State have mechanisms in place to deal with return decisions within six weeks (e.g., production of summary evidence, limitation of appeals, swift enforcement)?

- No
 Yes

Please specify:

Please insert text here

9. If the response to question 8 above is “No”, does your State contemplate implementing mechanisms to meet the requirement of prompt return under the 1980 Convention (e.g., procedures, bench-books, guidelines, protocols)?

- No

Please specify:

Please insert text here

- Yes

Please specify:

Yes. The Central Authority of the Macao SAR will continuously update and elaborate its process guidance to set appropriate procedural deadlines.

10. Do the courts in your State make use of direct judicial communications⁶ to ensure prompt proceedings?

- No
 Yes

Please specify:

11. If your State has not designated a judge to the International Hague Network of Judges (IHNJ) does your State intend to do so in the near future?

- No
 Yes

Please specify:

Two judges of the Macao SAR were designated to the International Hague Network of Judges.

12. Please comment upon any cases (where your State was the requested State) in which the judge (or decision-maker) has, before determining an application for return, communicated with a judge or other authority in the requesting State regarding the issue of the child’s safe return. What was the specific purpose of the communication? What was the outcome?

There was no such case.

⁶ For reference, see “Direct Judicial Communications - Emerging Guidance regarding the development of the International Hague Network of Judges and General Principles for Judicial Communications, including commonly accepted safeguards for Direct Judicial Communications in specific cases, within the context of the International Hague Network of Judges”.

The role and functions of Central Authorities designated under the 1980 Convention

In general

13. Have any of the duties of Central Authorities, as set out in Article 7 of the 1980 Convention, raised any particular problems in practice either in your State, or in Contracting Parties with which your State has cooperated?

No
 Yes
 Please specify:

Legal aid and representation

15. Do the measures your Central Authority takes to provide or facilitate the provision of legal aid, legal advice and representation in return proceedings under the 1980 Convention (Art. 7(2)(g)) result in delays in proceedings either in your own State, or, where cases originate in your State, in any of the requested States that were dealt with?

No
 Yes

Locating the child

17. Has your Central Authority encountered any challenges with locating children in cases involving the 1980 Convention, either as a requesting or requested State?

No
 Yes
 Please specify the challenges encountered and what steps were taken or are considered to be taken to overcome these challenges:

⁷ See paras 1.1.4 to 1.1.6 of the C&R of the Fifth Meeting of the SC to review the operation of the 1980 Child Abduction and the practical implementation of the 1996 Child Protection Convention (30 October – 9 November 2006) (2006 SC C&R) and paras 32 to 34 of the C&R of the Sixth Meeting of the SC to review the operation of 1980 and 1996 Conventions (1-10 June 2011 and 25-31 January 2012) (2012 SC C&R), available on the HCCH website at www.hcch.net under “Child Abduction Section” then “Special Commission meetings”.

Voluntary agreements and bringing about an amicable resolution of the issues

18. How does your Central Authority (either directly or through any intermediary) take, or is considering taking, appropriate steps under Article 7(c) to bring about an amicable resolution of the issues? Please explain:

When the Central Authority of the Macao SAR receives a request for the return of the child, its professional social workers will, according to the internal process guidance, get into contact with the persons concerned and attempt to achieve the voluntary return of the child.

19. In the case that your Central Authority offers mediation services, or other alternative dispute resolution methods to bring about an amicable resolution of the issues, has your Central Authority reviewed these procedures in the light of the framework of international child abduction cases (e.g., by providing trained, specialised mediators, including with cross-cultural competence and necessary language skills⁸)?

Please specify:

As mentioned above, there is no mediation or other alternative dispute resolution regime specified for cases of international child abduction due to the considerably low number of cases in the Macao SAR. However, its Central Authority continuously provides assistance and services in cases related to various family issues, including child abduction cases under the 1980 Convention.

20. Should the services mentioned in the question above not yet be provided, does your Central Authority intend to provide them in the future?

Please provide comments:

Having considered that there were only a few cases related to the 1980 Convention in the Macao SAR, currently, the establishment of a specified regime of mediation or alternative dispute resolution for child abduction cases is not considered a priority. However, the relevant authorities of the Macao SAR will regularly review internal regulations or procedures for improvement.

21. Has your State considered, or is it in the process of considering, the establishment of a central service for international family mediation to facilitate access to information on available mediation services and related issues for cross-border family disputes involving children?⁹

Please explain:

Currently, this is not considered a priority because there were only a few cases related to the 1980 Convention in the Macao SAR.

Yes

Please explain:

⁸ For reference, please see the recommendation in the Guide to Good Practice on Mediation, item 3.2, paras 98-105, “Specific training for mediation in international child abduction cases”, available on the HCCH website at www.hcch.net under “Child Abduction Section” then “Guides to Good Practice”.

⁹ As it has been encouraged in the Guide to Good Practice on Mediation, Chapter 4, on “Access to Mediation”. paras 114-117. See also 2011 / 2012 SC C&R at para. 61.

Ensuring the safe return of children¹⁰

22. How does the competent authority in your State obtain information about the protective measures available in the requesting State when necessary to ensure the safe return of the child?

Please explain:

In general, the competent authority of the Macao SAR directly requests the Central Authority of the Macao SAR to gather and provide the relevant information of the requesting State, or uses the HCCH website to search for information when necessary.

23. If requested as a safe return measure (e.g., in accordance with the 1996 Convention), would your Central Authority be in a position to provide, either directly or through intermediaries, a report on the situation of the child after a certain period of time after the return?

No

Yes

Please specify:

The 1996 Convention is not applicable to the Macao SAR. Nevertheless, the Central Authority of the Macao SAR may take proper measures in response to the special circumstances of the case, and maintain close liaison and cooperation with the Central Authority of the State that returned the child to ensure the fulfilment of any specific needs of the child following a return and to safeguard his/her safety. So far, such practice has been effective.

Information exchange, training and networking of Central Authorities

24. Has your Central Authority shared experiences with other Central Authority(ies), for example by organising or participating in any networking initiatives such as regional meetings of Central Authorities, either in person or online? ¹¹

No

Yes

Case management and collection of statistical data on applications made under the Convention

25. Has your Central Authority developed any protocols or internal guidelines for the processing of incoming and outgoing cases?

No

Yes

Please specify and share the relevant instruments whenever possible:

As mentioned above, in 2015 and 2022, the Central Authority of the Macao SAR elaborated process guidances for cases of international child abduction regarding applications for the return of the child and access, respectively, based on the Guide to Good Practice under the 1980 Convention.

26. Does your Central Authority operate a case management system for processing and tracking incoming and outgoing cases?

No

¹⁰ See Art. 7(2)(h) of the 1980 Convention.

¹¹ See, in particular, Chapter 6.5, on twinning arrangements, of the Guide to Good Practice – Part I – Central Authority Practice, available on the HCCH website at www.hcch.net (see path indicated in note 8).

- Yes
Please specify:
All international child abduction cases were recorded.

27. Does your State collect statistical data on the number of applications made per year under the 1980 Convention (e.g., number of incoming and / or outgoing cases)?¹²

- No

Special topics

Obtaining the views of a child in a child abduction case

33. When obtaining the views of a child in a child abduction proceeding in your State’s jurisdiction, what are the elements normally observed and reported by the person hearing the child (e.g., expert, judge, guardian ad litem? (E.g., the views of the child on the procedures, the views of the child on the subject of return, the maturity of the child, any perceived parental influence on the child’s statements)?

Please explain:

The judges handle the case and take appropriate measures in strict accordance with the law. Before making a judicial order of returning the child, the judges may order evidence measures deemed necessary to be carried out according to Article 112 of the Social Protection Regime of Decree-law 65/99/M, including hearing statements of all parties involved in the case and requesting a report from the Social Welfare Bureau. In the end, the judges will comprehensively consider all evidence and the content of the report to make a decision that is in the best interests of the child.

The Social Protection Regime of Decree-law 65/99/M is available in Chinese and Portuguese respectively on https://bo.io.gov.mo/bo/i/99/43/declei65_cn.asp and <https://bo.io.gov.mo/bo/i/99/43/declei65.asp#65>.

34. Are there any procedures, guidelines or principles available in your State to guide the person (e.g. expert, judge, guardian ad litem) in seeking the views of the child in a child abduction case?

- No
 Yes

Please specify:

The judges handle the case and take appropriate measures in strict accordance with the law. 42. If your State is a Party to the 1996 Convention, does your State make use of the relevant cooperation provisions (e.g., Art. 32) to provide, if requested, either directly or through intermediaries, a report on the situation of the child after a certain period of time after the return?¹⁷

- No
 Yes

Please specify:

The 1996 Convention is not applicable to the Macao SAR.

Primary carer and protective measures

43. Are you aware of any cases in your State where a primary carer taking parent, for reasons of personal security (e.g., domestic or family violence, intimidation, coercive control, harassment, etc.) or others, has refused or has not been in a position to return with the child to the requesting State? How are such cases dealt with in your State?

Please explain and provide case examples where possible:

There were no such cases.

44. Would the authorities of your State consider putting in place measures to protect the primary carer upon return in the requesting State if they were requested as a means to secure the safe return of the child?

Please explain and provide case examples where possible:

It is not considered currently because there were no such cases.

45. In cases where the return order was issued together with a protective measure to be implemented upon return, are you aware of any issues encountered by your State in relation to the enforcement of such protective measures?

- No
 Yes

Please explain and distinguish between such measures being recognised and enforced under the 1996 Convention:

51. By what methods does your State disseminate information to the public and raise awareness about the 1980 Convention?

Please explain:
 The Central Authority of the Macao SAR has created a page on its official website to disseminate information with regard to the 1980 Convention, including application procedures and relevant internal laws.

¹⁸ See the C&R of the 2006 SC at paras 1.7.4-1.7.5, C&R No 84 of the 2012 SC, and C&R No 21 of the 2017 SC, the latter of which says: "The Special Commission recalls the importance of securing effective access to procedures to the parties in international family relocation cases. In this regard, the Special Commission notes that: i) mediation services may assist the parties to solve these cases or prepare for outcomes; ii) the Washington Declaration of 25 March 2010 on Cross-border Family Relocation may be of interest to competent authorities, in particular in the absence of domestic rules on this matter. The Special Commission recommends joining the 1996 Convention."

PART II – TRAINING, EDUCATION AND POST-CONVENTION SERVICES

Training and education

52. Please provide below details of any training sessions / conferences organised in your State to support the effective functioning of the 1980 Convention, and the influence that such sessions / conferences have had:
